for use under this or another Act	20

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| (1) A person ( applicant ) must allow the chief | 21 |
| executive to take and keep for use under this Act,     | 22 |
| or for use as provided under another Act, a digital    | 23 |
| photo and digitised signature of the applicant (as     | 24 |
| required by the chief executive) if the applicant—     | 25 |
| (a) applies to the administrator for a prescribed      | 26 |
| authorisation Act for the grant, renewal,              | 27 |
| amendment or replacement of a prescribed               | 28 |
| authority (the authority applied for ); or      | 29 |
| (b) applies to, or asks, the administrator for a       | 30 |
| transport Act about something else relevant            | 31 |
| to the administration of a transport Act and,          | 32 |
| to deal with the application or request, the           | 33 |

- administrator considers it reasonably necessary to use facial recognition technology to establish the applicant's connection to the most recent digital photo of the person the applicant is claiming to be.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the applicant withdraws the application or request.
- (3) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if—
- (a) as allowed under this Act, the chief executive is keeping the applicant's most recent digital photo and most recent digitised signature; and
- (b) the chief executive has no evidence to suggest that the applicant's most recent digital photo is not a true likeness of the applicant; and
- (c) the shelf life of the applicant's most recent digital photo and most recent digitised signature, or the most recent extension of the shelf life under section 28EB, has not ended and will not end before the expiry of any prescribed authorisation document that is granted on the approval of the authority applied for.
- (4) If an applicant makes an application mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to the administrator for a prescribed authorisation Act that is not a transport Act, the chief executive must advise the administrator if—
- (a) the applicant has not complied with subsection (1)(a); or
- (b) the chief executive is not satisfied there is a sufficient connection between the digital photo taken under subsection (1)(a) and the most recent digital photo of the person the applicant is claiming to be; or

[s 43]

---

- (c) the chief executive is satisfied there is a sufficient connection between the digital photo taken under subsection (1)(a) and the most recent digital photo of someone other than the person the applicant is claiming to be. 1 2
3
4
5
6
- (5) The administrator for a transport Act must refuse to consider any application or request mentioned in subsection (1) if— 7
9
  - (a) the applicant has not complied with subsection (1); or 10 11
  - (b) the administrator is not satisfied there is a sufficient connection between the digital photo taken under subsection (1) and the most recent digital photo of the person the applicant is claiming to be; or 12 13
14
15
16
  - (c) the administrator is satisfied that there is a sufficient connection between the digital photo taken under subsection (1) and the most recent digital photo of someone other than the person the applicant is claiming to be. 17 18
19
20
21
22

24

26

- (1) The chief executive may extend the shelf life of the most recent digital photo and most recent digitised signature of a person. 27 28
29
- (2) The period for which the shelf life may be extended under subsection (1) must not result in the shelf life being extended under the subsection for periods totalling more than 6 months. 30 31
32
33

Example—

If the shelf life has been extended previously under subsection (1) for 2 months, the next extension under the subsection must not be for more than 4 months.

28EC Using a digital photo and digitised signature

(1) The chief executive may use a person's most recent digital photo and most recent digitised signature for either of the following purposes—

(a) to help identify the person for the purpose of any application or request under section 28EA(1);

(b) to reproduce the person's digital photo and digitised signature on a prescribed authorisation document.

(2) The chief executive may also use a person's most recent digital photo and most recent digitised signature in an investigation of, or a proceeding for, an offence that—

(a) happens—

(i) in making an application or request mentioned in section 28EA(1) for which the digital photo and digitised signature are taken; or

(ii) during the retention period for the digital photo and digitised signature; and

(b) involves a person obtaining or attempting to obtain, by a false statement or misrepresentation or in any other dishonest way—

(i) the grant, renewal, amendment or replacement of a prescribed authority; or

(ii) something else under a transport Act.

28EE Deleting a digital photo or digitised signature from register or similar record	1
	2
When the retention period for a person's digital photo or digitised signature kept under this Act ends, the chief executive must delete the person's digital photo or digitised signature from any register or similar record kept under this Act by the chief executive.	3
	4
	5
	6
	7
28EF Destruction of a digital photo or digitised signature	8
	9
(1) This section applies to a copy of a person's digital photo or digitised signature—	10
	11
(a) accessed under this part by the administrator of a prescribed authorisation Act that is not a transport Act; and	12
	13
	14
(b) in the possession of that administrator, including by electronic communication.	15
	16
(2) The administrator may retain the copy for the period necessary to conduct an investigation of, or for use in a proceeding for, an offence mentioned in section 28ED(5).	17
	18
	20
(3) However, the administrator must take reasonable steps to destroy each copy of a person's digital photo or digitised signature accessed for the investigation or prosecution of an offence if a proceeding for the offence has not started within 1 year after the day the photo or signature was first accessed.	21
	22
	23
	24
	25
	26
	27
(4) The destruction of a copy of a digital photo or digitised signature must be carried out within a reasonable period—	28
	29
	30
(a) after the administrator stops having a reason to retain the photo or signature under subsection (2); or	31

- (2) On the commencement, the retention period for a person's digital photo or digitised signature for this Act is—
- (a) if the photo or signature was taken under the Adult Proof of Age Card Act 2008—the retention period that applied to the photo or signature under repealed section 37 of that Act; or
- (b) if the photo or signature was taken under the Tow Truck Act 1973—the retention period that applied to the photo or signature under repealed section 19F of that Act; or
- (c) if the photo or signature was taken under the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994—the retention period that applied to the photo or signature under repealed section 63G of that Act; or
- (d) if the photo or signature was taken under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994—the retention period that applied to the photo or signature under repealed section 35F of that Act; or
- (e) if the photo or signature was taken under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995—the retention period that applied to the photo or signature under repealed section 91G of that Act.
- 42 Access to digital photos under other Transport Acts to be included in annual report
- (1) This section applies if, in a financial year, access to digital photos could be had under this Act, section 28ED and under any of the following provisions—
- (a) Adult Proof of Age Card Act 2008, section 33;
