164 C	ourt diversion referrals	1
(1	This section applies if the court makes a court diversion referral.	2 3
(2	The making of the referral brings the court proceeding for the offence to an end and the child is not liable to be further prosecuted for the offence unless—	4 5 6 7
	(a) the chief executive returns the referral under section 32(1); or	8 9
	(b) the chief executive advises the court's proper officer that the child failed to comply with a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.	10 11 12 13
(3)) If subsection (2)(a) applies—	14
	(a) the court's proper officer must bring the charge for the offence back on before the court for sentencing; and	15 16 17
	(b) in sentencing the child, the court must not have regard to the referral being returned.	18 19
(4	If subsection (2)(b) applies, the court's proper officer must bring the charge for the offence back on before the court for sentencing and the court must either—	20 21 22 23
	(a) take no further action; or	24
	(b) allow the child a further opportunity to comply with the agreement; or	25 26
	(c) sentence the child for the offence.	27
(5)	If the charge for the offence is brought back on before the court for sentencing, the court's proper officer must give the child and the chief executive notice that the proceeding for the offence is to be heard by the court on a stated day.	28 29 30 31 32
(6	The notice must include a warning that, if the child fails to appear before the court in	33 34

	compliance with the notice, the court may issue a warrant for the child's arrest.	1 2
(7)	The notice restarts the proceeding from when it ended and the child is liable to be sentenced for the offence.	3 4 5
(8)	If the child fails to appear before the court in compliance with the notice, the court may issue a warrant for the child's arrest.	6 7 8
(9)	If subsection (4)(a) applies, the court proceeding for the offence is brought to an end and the child is not liable to be further prosecuted for the offence.	9 10 11 12
165 Pre	esentence referrals	13
(1)	This section applies if the court makes a presentence referral.	14 15
(2)	On making the referral, the court may—	16
	(a) give the directions it considers appropriate to the child or the chief executive; and	17 18
	(b) adjourn the proceeding for the offence.	19
(3)	If the chief executive returns the referral under section 32(1), the court must proceed with sentencing the child for the offence.	20 21 22
(4)	If a restorative justice agreement is made as a consequence of the referral, the chief executive must—	23 24 25
	(a) give the court a copy of the agreement; and	26
	(b) inform the court of any obligations of the child under the agreement that have already been performed.	27 28 29
