Chair's Foreword

This report details the activities of the Education, Arts and Communities Committee from 28 November 2024 to 30 June 2025.

In accordance with section 108 of the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001, this report includes a summary of issues considered by the committee, a brief description of Ministerial responses to committee recommendations, a statement of revenue and spending for the year, and a list of committee meetings and names of members attending or absent from each meeting.

On behalf of the committee, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have contributed to the work of the committee during this reporting period.

I also thank my fellow committee members for their ongoing dedication and collaborative approach and the committee's secretariat and parliamentary staff for their professional support throughout the year.

Nigel Hutton MP

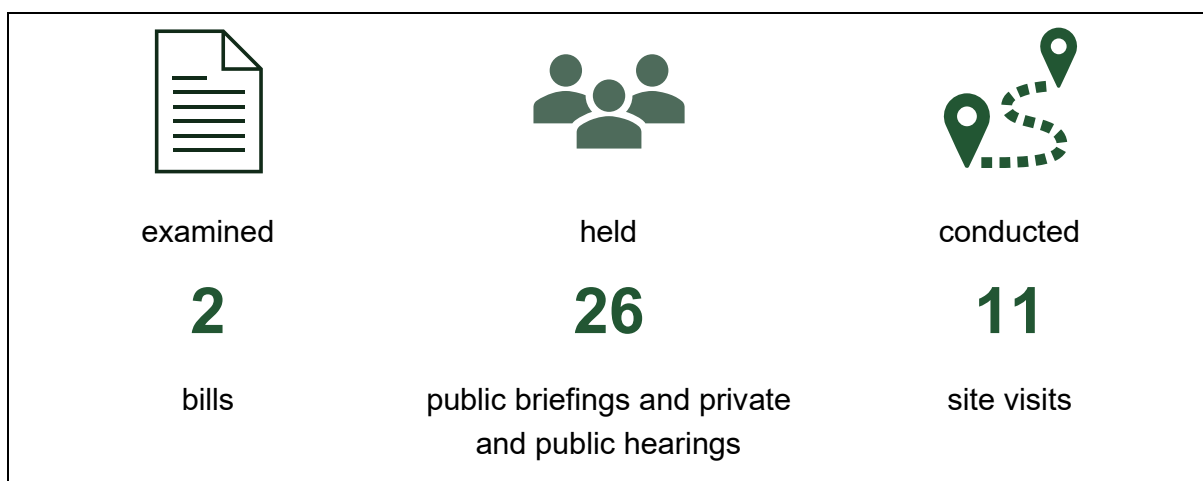

Chair

Report in Brief

The Education, Arts and Communities Committee (committee) was established by the Queensland Legislative Assembly on 28 November 2024 as a portfolio committee with responsibility for:

- Education and Arts
- Women, Women's Economic Security, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships and Multiculturalism
- Families, Seniors, Disability Services, Child Safety and Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence.

This report covers the period from 28 November 2024 to 30 June 2025 in the 2024-25 financial period. In that time, the committee:

The committee's examination of referred bills included proposals to:

- reform administrative aspects of the delivery of school education¹
- broaden Queensland's domestic and family violence response framework.²

Following its consideration of these bills, the committee recommended that each of them be passed. It also made:

- one recommendation to amend a bill
- seven recommendations designed to clarify or improve the operation of the legislation proposed in the bills.

All of the committee's recommendations were accepted or accepted in principle by the government.

In addition to scrutinising legislation, the committee commenced an Inquiry into elder abuse in Queensland and considered two Auditor-General reports.

¹ Education (General Provisions) Amendment Bill 2025.

² Domestic and Family Violence Protection and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025.

On 11 June 2025, the Appropriation Bill 2025 was tabled in Parliament. The committee then commenced preparation for its examination of portfolio budget estimates 2025-26.

The committee's total expenditure for the reporting period was $396,911.

1. Functions of the Committee

The Education, Arts and Communities Committee is a portfolio committee responsible for:

- Education and Arts
- Women, Women's Economic Security, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships and Multiculturalism
- Families, Seniors, Disability Services, Child Safety and Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence

The committee has a broad range of responsibilities within its portfolio area, as detailed in Figure 1 below. These responsibilities are set out in the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001.³ The committee is also responsible for overseeing the performance of the Family Responsibilities Commission, as detailed in Schedule 6 of the Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Assembly.

2. Overview of Committee Activities

During the period 28 November 2024 to 30 June 2025, the committee undertook considerable engagement with stakeholders who made submissions to its inquiries. As detailed in Table 1, which summarises the activities of the committee during the reporting period, the committee heard from 203 witnesses across 5 public briefings, 20 public hearings (held in Brisbane and regional Queensland) and 1 private hearing. The evidence provided by these witnesses was invaluable, helping the committee to complete its tasks.

³ Parliament of Queensland Act 2001(POQA), ss 92-94.

The committee's reports tabled during the reporting period are available on the committee's website. Members' attendance at committee meetings, hearings and briefings is set out in Appendix A.

3. Examination of Budget Estimates

On 24 June 2025, the Appropriation Bill 2025 was tabled in Parliament. The committee then commenced preparations for the examination of the 2025-26 budget estimates for its three portfolio areas, which totalled approximately $27.4 billion.⁴ The estimates process was still ongoing at the completion of this reporting period.

⁴ Appropriation Bill 2025, Schedule 1; Department of Education $20.37 billion, Department of Families, Seniors, Disability Services and Child Safety $6.87 billion, Department of Women, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships and Multiculturalism $181.8 million.

4. Bill Inquiries

When it examines legislation, the committee is responsible for considering:

- the policy to which it gives effect
- whether it complies with the basic standards of law, known as fundamental legislative principles
- whether it is compatible with the human rights of people in Queensland; and
- where relevant, whether subordinate legislation is lawful.

The committee conducted 2 bill inquiries during the reporting period. As shown in Table 2, the committee made a number of recommendations in relation to the bills it considered. Government responses to recommendations made by the committee (where provided) are noted in the discussions of each inquiry below.⁵

Table 2. Bills examined by the committee, 28 November 2024 to 30 June 2025

Bill	Report No.	Recommendations
Education (General Provisions) Amendment Bill 2025	2	2
Domestic and Family Violence Protection and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025	5	7

4.1. Education (General Provisions) Amendment Bill 2025

The Bill proposed to amend the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 and other legislation with amendments to reform administrative aspects of digital learning services, the age eligibility of students in home education, P&C Associations administration, student eligibility for eKindy, and information sharing between Queensland schools. The Bill also proposed to amend a number of Queensland statutes by making minor and technical amendments.

The committee received and accepted 34 submissions, and held a public briefing and a public hearing in Brisbane.

The committee tabled its Report No.2 on 2 May 2025, with 2 recommendations. In addition to recommending that the Bill be passed, the committee made a second recommendation in relation to the age eligibility of students in home education.

As at 30 June 2025, the Bill was on Notice Paper of the Legislative Assembly for second reading debate.

⁵ The Government has 3 months to respond to recommendations made by the committee (POQA s 107(4)).

4.2. Domestic and Family Violence Protection and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

The Bill proposed amendments to the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012 (DFVP Act) to improve productivity for operational police officers when responding to DFV, provide victim survivors with immediate protections against respondents and make other technical amendments to DFV legislation. The Bill also proposed to amend the Evidence Act 1977 to expand the video-recorded evidence-in-chief (VREC) framework.

The committee held a public briefing in Brisbane, and public hearings in Mackay, Cairns and Brisbane. The committee undertook a study tour to learn of similar DFV response frameworks established in Tasmania.

The committee tabled its Report No.5 on 20 June 2025, making 7 recommendations. In addition to recommending that the Bill be passed, the committee recommended reform to guidelines and training for police responders, evaluation of the electronic monitoring trial, and amendment to the Family Responsibilities Act 2009 to account for reforms to be enacted by the Bill.

As at 30 June 2025, the Bill was on Notice Paper of the Legislative Assembly for second reading debate. The Bill was passed, with amendment, on 28 August 2025.

5. Other Inquiries

The committee considered an inquiry referred by the Legislative Assembly and two Auditor-General reports during the reporting period.

5.1. Inquiries referred by the Legislative Assembly

5.1.1. Inquiry into elder abuse in Queensland

On 10 December 2024 the Legislative Assembly agreed to a motion that the committee inquire into and report on Elder Abuse in Queensland, with a reporting date of 12 December 2025.

The terms of reference call upon the committee to consider:

1. The abuse of older people in Queensland (elder abuse), defined as a single or repeated act, or lack of appropriate action, in the context of a relationship of trust, causing harm or distress, including the:
 - a. nature and extent, including for vulnerable cohorts, of:
 - i. forms of neglect and abuse, such as physical, sexual, psychological, emotional and financial;
 - ii. relationships where elder abuse occurs, including family and kinship relationships;
 - iii. risk and protective factors, and barriers and enablers for people to access support.

- b. effectiveness and cohesiveness of responses to elder abuse, including Queensland laws, policies, programs and services, in preventing, safeguarding, identifying and responding to elder abuse, including:
 - i. adult guardianship and violence protection services, other funded services, and community-based interventions;
 - ii. civil and criminal legal frameworks;
 - iii. community awareness, education and engagement initiatives;
 - iv. monitoring, evaluation and reporting processes;
 - v. human rights protections.
- c. opportunities to improve responses to elder abuse in Queensland, within the government, broader community, non-government, and private sectors, including ensuring responses are trauma informed and culturally appropriate.

2. The inquiry will consider:

- a. voices of people with lived experience of elder abuse (with appropriate assistance to be provided for people to engage with the inquiry where required);
- b. views of other stakeholders; and
- c. relevant findings, reports and prevalence studies (insofar as they relate to elder abuse).

Since the referral of the inquiry, the committee has conducted one public briefing and 4 public hearings in Brisbane, and 12 regional hearings across Queensland.

The committee called for and received 121 submissions, of which 100 are published on the inquiry webpage. The Inquiry was still ongoing at the completion of the reporting period.

5.2. Public Accounts Inquiries

The committee is responsible for assessing the public accounts of entities within its portfolio areas with regard to the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of financial management.

This responsibility includes examination of government financial documents including annual reports, and reports of the Auditor-General relevant to the committee's portfolio.⁶

⁶ POQA, s 94(1).

5.2.1. Auditor General Reports

The committee's role includes consideration of reports of the Auditor-General that fall within its portfolio.

The Auditor-General leads the Queensland Audit Office (QAO), which is the independent auditor of the public sector. It reports to parliament on the results of its audit work, providing insights and advice, and recommendations for improvement.

In the reporting period, the committee considered 2 reports from the Auditor-General:

- Report 6: 2024-25 – Protecting students from bullying
- Report 15: 2024-25 – Education 2024.

During its consideration of these reports the committee held 2 public briefings with officials from the QAO and relevant government agencies.

Examination of both Auditor-General reports is ongoing.

5.2.2. Public Works Inquiries

The committee may consider public works undertaken by an entity that is a constructing authority⁷ for the works, or consider any major works,⁸ within its portfolio areas.

During the reporting period, the committee did not commence a public works inquiry.

6. Scrutiny of Subordinate Legislation

Subordinate legislation is legislation made by a department or other entity under powers given to them by an act of parliament. All subordinate legislation must be tabled in the Legislative Assembly, which can disallow it by resolution.⁹ To help it decide whether or not to do so, the Legislative Assembly refers each item of subordinate legislation to the relevant portfolio committee for consideration.

When examining subordinate legislation, each committee considers a range of matters, including:

- whether it has sufficient regard for basic standards for legislation, known as 'fundamental legislative principles'
- whether it is consistent with the human rights of people in Queensland; and
- whether the explanatory notes provide an adequate explanation of why the subordinate legislation is needed and what it does.

During the reporting period, the committee examined 5 pieces of subordinate legislation. As shown in Table 3, in all cases, the committee did not identify any significant matters of concern regarding fundamental legislative principles or human rights. Where it did, in each case the committee was satisfied that the subordinate legislation had sufficient regard for fundamental legislative principles, and any limitations of human rights were reasonable and justified in the circumstances.

4	Education and Care Services National Amendment (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2024	0	0	✓
7	Disability Services Amendment Regulation 2025	0	0	✓

7. Consideration of Authorised Forms

The committee's responsibilities include monitoring the operation of section 48 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 in relation to legislation within its portfolio area. That section sets out a number of requirements for forms, including how forms must be notified and made available to the public.

During the reporting period, no notified forms fell within the committee's portfolio area.

8. Statutory Oversight

8.1. Oversight of the Family Responsibilities Commission

The committee has responsibility under Standing Order 194A for oversight of the Family Responsibilities Commission (FRC).

The FRC is an independent statutory body conceived by First Nations peoples and driven by community members, whose purpose is to support community members in welfare reform communities to restore socially responsible standards of behaviour, local authority, and wellbeing.¹⁰

The committee's role is to:

- monitor and review the performance by the FRC of the FRC's functions
- report to the Legislative Assembly on any matter concerning the FRC, the FRC's functions or the performance of the FRC's functions that the committee considers should be drawn to the Legislative Assembly's attention
- examine the annual report of the FRC tabled in the Legislative Assembly and, if appropriate, to comment on any aspect of the report
- report to the Legislative Assembly any changes to the functions, structures and procedures of the FRC that the committee considers desirable for the more effective operation of the FRC or the Family Responsibilities Commission Act 2008 (FRC Act).¹¹

¹⁰ Family Responsibilities Commission Act 2008, s 4.

¹¹ Standing Orders, SO 194A, sch 6.

8.2. Oversight activities

During the reporting period, the committee considered the FRC's Annual Report 2023-2024, which was tabled on 6 March 2025. Following its consideration of that report, and to assist the committee with its oversight of the functions of the FRC, the committee held a public hearing with the Family Responsibilities Commissioner, Tammy Williams, and other FRC staff, on 28 April 2025. Topics covered during the briefing included:

- workforce planning and training
- replacement of the commission's accounting software
- the demand, provision and administration of voluntary income management.¹²

The committee resolved in January 2025 to visit Hope Vale and Cooktown, at the invitation of the Family Responsibilities Commissioner. Hope Vale is one of the five 'welfare reform communities' within the FRC's jurisdiction.

During the visit, 25-26 February 2025, the committee met with Local Commissioners in Hope Vale and observed key FRC activities including Client Conferences and Client Engagement (CE) sessions. The committee also joined a Justice Reinvestment roundtable discussion with the FRC and staff of the Cape York Institute, and visited the Hope Vale Opportunity Hub and Hope Vale Wellbeing Centre.

The committee visited two state schools in Hope Vale and Cooktown to meet with students and teachers: Cooktown State School (P – 12) and the Hope Vale Campus of the Cape York Aboriginal Australian Academy (P – 6).

The committee reported on its visit in Report No. 3, Report on visit to Hope Vale and Cooktown with the Family Responsibilities Commission, tabled on 23 May 2025.

9. Committee Expenditure

Committees are funded from the appropriation made to the Legislative Assembly and rarely generate revenue. After funding is allocated for the committee office as a whole, expenditure by individual committees is determined by their specific requirements and volume of work. Travel expenditure is subject to an additional approval process.

In the reporting period, the committee's total expenditure was $439,020. The committee did not receive any revenue.

Figure 2 shows the three main areas of expenditure. As that figure illustrates, employee expenses for the secretariat staff supporting the committee comprised the vast majority (just over 70 per cent) of the committee's expenditure. The committee's secretariat is a three-person team, supplemented with additional resources from across the Committee Office as needed throughout the year. Travel comprised approximately 28% of the total expenditure and this covered committee travel in support of its Inquiry into elder abuse in Queensland and the examination of the Bill in relation to Domestic and Family Violence
