Division 2 Principles 31

[s 18]

86 Principle of shared responsibility	1
(1) The safety of activities associated with providing a taxi service or booked hire service is the shared responsibility of each person in the chain of responsibility for the service.	2 3 4 5
(2) The level and nature of a person’s responsibility for an activity depends on—	6 7
(a) the functions the person performs or is required to perform, whether exclusively or occasionally; and	8 9 10
(b) the nature of the safety risks created by the carrying out of the activity; and	11 12
(c) the person’s capacity to control, eliminate or minimise the risks.	13 14
87 Principles applying to duties	15
(1) A person may have more than 1 duty because of the functions the person performs or is required to perform.	16 17 18
(2) More than 1 person can concurrently have the same duty.	19 20

(a) is responsible for the person’s duty in relation to the matter; and	26 27
(b) must discharge the person’s duty to the extent to which the person—	28 29
(i) has the capacity to influence and control the matter; or	30 31

- (ii) would have the capacity but for an agreement or arrangement purporting to limit or remove that capacity. 1
2
3
 - (5) A person's duty can not be transferred to another person. 4
5
 - (6) Compliance with relevant transport legislation or a safety law is not, of itself, evidence that a person has discharged a duty under this part. 6
8

Division 3 Nature of primary duties 9

88 Primary duty of care 10

- (1) Each person in the chain of responsibility for a taxi service or booked hire service must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of the person's activities, including business practices and making decisions, relating to providing the service. 11
12
13
14
15
16
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), each person in the chain of responsibility must— 17
18
 - (a) eliminate safety risks or, to the extent it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate safety risks, minimise the safety risks; and 19 20
21
 - (b) ensure the person's conduct does not directly or indirectly encourage another person, including another person in the chain of responsibility, to contravene a provision of relevant transport legislation relating to— 22
23
24
25
26
27
 - (i) providing a taxi service or booked hire service; or 28
