QUESTION:

With reference to the Minister's letter to me dated 19 October 2012 in relation to the former Director of the Sunshine Coast Institute of TAFE—

What was the outcome of the investigation referred to in my earlier correspondence with the Minister and in particular, did the director retire with full entitlements or part entitlements, pending the outcome of the investigation and are the investigations continuing, and if not, what was the outcome of this investigation?

ANSWER:

I am advised the investigation by my Department's Ethical Standards Unit continues. As previously advised, the issues relating to this investigation are complex and significant in number.

The provisions of the post-separation discipline legislation and directive will be considered, if appropriate, at the conclusion of the investigation.
