‘510	Definitions for pt 16	12
	‘In this part—	13
	amended Act means this Act as amended by the Criminal Law	14
	(Child Exploitation and Dangerous Drugs) Amendment Act	15
	2012 .	16
	commencement means the commencement of this section.	17
	new disqualified person means a person who is a disqualified	18
	person only because the person has been convicted or is	19
	convicted of a new disqualifying offence.	20
	new disqualifying offence means an offence that is a	21
	disqualifying offence under this Act but was not a	22
	disqualifying offence under this Act immediately before the	23
	commencement.	24
	new relevant disqualified person means a person who is a	25
	relevant disqualified person only because the person has been	26
	convicted or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence for	27
	which an imprisonment order has been or is imposed.	28

new serious offence means an offence that is a serious offence under this Act but was not a serious offence under this Act immediately before the commencement. 1

‘Division 2 Eligibility applications and eligibility declarations 4
5

‘511 Existing eligibility application 6

- ‘(1) This section applies if— 7
- (a) before the commencement a person had made an 8 eligibility application to the commissioner under section 9
178; and 10
 - (b) immediately before the commencement the person’s 11
eligibility application had not been decided or 12 withdrawn. 13

- ‘(2) At the commencement the commissioner must decide the 14
application under the amended Act. 15

Note— 16

The commissioner may issue an eligibility declaration to a person if the 17 person has been convicted of a disqualifying offence and is not a 18 relevant disqualified person. See section 180(1). 19

‘512 Current eligibility declaration for new relevant disqualified person 20
21

- ‘(1) This section applies to a person if— 22
- (a) before the commencement the commissioner had issued, 23 or was taken to have issued, the person an eligibility 24 declaration; and 25
 - (b) immediately before the commencement the person’s 26
eligibility declaration had not expired; and 27
 - (c) at the commencement the person is a new relevant 28
disqualified person. 29

‘(2) At the commencement the person’s eligibility declaration is taken to have expired.	1 2
Note—	3
If the person also holds a positive notice, see section 519.	4
‘513 Current eligibility declaration for person charged with new disqualifying offence or convicted of new serious offence	5 6 7
‘(1) This section applies to a person if—	8
(a) before the commencement the commissioner had issued, or was taken to have issued, the person an eligibility declaration; and	9 10 11
(b) immediately before the commencement the person’s eligibility declaration had not expired; and	12 13
(c) the person—	14
(i) was convicted of a new serious offence before the commencement; or	15 16
(ii) is charged with a new disqualifying offence at the commencement.	17 18
‘(2) At the commencement—	19
(a) the amended Act applies to the person’s eligibility declaration; and	20 21
(b) the person’s eligibility declaration is taken to have been issued on the commencement.	22 23
‘(3) If, after the commencement the commissioner is to make a decision under chapter 8, part 4, division 9 about the person, and it is the first time the commissioner is to make a decision under that division after the commencement, section 223(1)(b) does not apply to the commissioner making the decision.	24 25 26 27 28 29
‘514 Other eligibility declarations	30
‘(1) This section applies to a person if—	31

[s 4]

(a)	before the commencement the commissioner had issued, or was taken to have issued, the person an eligibility declaration; and	1 2 3
(b)	immediately before the commencement the person's eligibility declaration had not expired; and	4 5
(c)	at the commencement section 512 or 513 does not apply.	6
‘(2)	At the commencement the amended Act applies to the person's eligibility declaration.	7 8
‘515	Existing application for reversal of decision refusing an eligibility declaration	9 10
‘(1)	This section applies if—	11
(a)	before the commencement a person had made an application under section 186(2) to the commissioner; and	12 13 14
(b)	immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided.	15 16
‘(2)	At the commencement the amended Act applies and the commissioner may decide the application under the amended Act.	17 18 19
‘Division 3	Prescribed notice applications and prescribed notices	20 21
‘516	Existing prescribed notice application by new relevant disqualified person	22 23
‘(1)	This section applies if—	24
(a)	before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and	25 26
(b)	immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	27 28

(c)	at the commencement the person is a new relevant disqualified person.	1 2
‘(2)	The person’s application is taken to be withdrawn.	3
‘(3)	The commissioner must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application to—	4 5
(a)	the person; and	6
(b)	each notifiable person for the person; and	7
(c)	if the person is the director of a school’s governing board—the accreditation board.	8 9
‘517	Existing prescribed notice application if person charged with new disqualifying offence or is new disqualified person but not new relevant disqualified person	10 11 12 13
‘(1)	This section applies if—	14
(a)	before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and	15 16
(b)	immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	17 18
(c)	at the commencement the person—	19
(i)	is charged with a new disqualifying offence; or	20
(ii)	is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person.	21 22
	Note—	23
	If a person holds a positive notice, see also sections 520 and 521.	24
‘(2)	Subsection (3) applies if—	25
(a)	at the commencement the person is charged with a new disqualifying offence; or	26 27
(b)	at the commencement the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person and, at the time of making the application—	28 29 30

- (i) was not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration; and 1 2
 - (ii) did not hold a positive notice. 3
- ‘(3) At the commencement— 4
 - (a) the application is taken to be withdrawn; and 5
 - (b) the commissioner must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application to— 6 7
 - (i) the person; and 8
 - (ii) each notifiable person for the person; and 9
 - (iii) if the person is the director of a school’s governing board—the accreditation board. 10
11
- Note—* 12
 - If a person charged with a new disqualifying offence also holds a positive notice, see also sections 521 and 240. 13
14
- ‘(4) Subsection (5) applies if the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person and at the time of making the application the person— 15
16
17
 - (a) was not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration; and 18 19
 - (b) held a positive notice that was not suspended. 20
- ‘(5) At the commencement— 21
 - (a) the person is taken to have been issued an eligibility declaration other than for section 223(1)(b); and 22
23
 - (b) the commissioner must decide the application under the amended Act. 24
25
- ‘(6) If the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person and, at the time of the application the person was issued an eligibility declaration, at the commencement the commissioner must decide the application under the amended Act but section 223(1)(b) does not apply to the commissioner making the decision. 26
27
28
29
30
31

‘(7) For subsections (3) and (6), if before the commencement the commissioner had under section 236 cancelled a negative notice issued to the person, on the commencement section 223(1)(a) does not apply to the commissioner making the decision.

‘518 Other existing prescribed notice applications

‘(1) This section applies if—

- (a) before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and
- (c) section 516 or 517 does not apply.

‘(2) At the commencement the commissioner must decide the application under the amended Act.

‘519 Current positive notice for new relevant disqualified person

‘(1) This section applies if—

- (a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement the notice was current; and
- (c) at the commencement the person is a new relevant disqualified person.

‘(2) At the commencement the amended Act applies and the commissioner must cancel the person’s positive notice and substitute a negative notice under section 239.

Note—

Under section 246, a person must return their cancelled positive notice and any positive notice blue card relating to the positive notice to the commissioner.

[s 4]

‘(3) Also, if the positive notice is suspended under section 240 or 242 at the commencement, any application for the cancellation of the suspension under section 241 or 243 that has not been decided or withdrawn at the commencement is taken to have been withdrawn.

‘520 Current positive notice for new disqualified person other than new relevant disqualified person

- ‘(1) This section applies if—
- (a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement the notice was current; and
 - (c) at the commencement the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person.
- ‘(2) If, at the commencement, the person’s positive notice is suspended under section 240 or 242, the amended Act applies in relation to the positive notice.
- ‘(3) If, at the commencement, the person is not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration and the person’s positive notice is not suspended under section 240 or 242—
- (a) the person is taken to have been issued an eligibility declaration under section 180; and
 - (b) the amended Act applies in relation to the positive notice.
- ‘(4) If, at the commencement, the person is issued, or taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration and the person’s positive notice is not suspended under section 240 or 242, the amended Act applies in relation to the person’s positive notice.
- ‘(5) If, after the commencement the commissioner is to make a decision under chapter 8, part 4, division 9 about a person to whom this section applies, and it is the first time the commissioner is to make a decision under that division after the commencement, section 223(1)(b) does not apply to the commissioner making the decision.	1 2

‘521 Other current positive notices	3
‘(1) This section applies if—	4
(a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and	5 6
(b) immediately before the commencement the positive notice was current; and	7 8
(c) section 519 or 520 does not apply.	9
‘(2) The amended Act applies to the person’s positive notice.	10
‘Division 4 Exemption notice applications and exemption notices	11 12
‘522 Existing exemption notice application by new relevant disqualified person	13 14
‘(1) This section applies if—	15
(a) before the commencement an exemption notice application was made about a person; and	16 17
(b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	18 19
(c) at the commencement the person is a new relevant disqualified person.	20 21
‘(2) The commissioner must decide the application under the amended Act.	22 23
Note—	24
See sections 285 and 224.	25

(ii)	the person is not a new disqualified person.	28
‘(2)	The person may apply for a review of the decision under section 354 within the review period.	29 30

‘Division 7	Miscellaneous	1
‘538	Commissioner acting on own initiative	2
‘(1)	This section applies if—	3
(a)	before the commencement the commissioner had started, on the commissioner’s own initiative, to exercise a power in relation to the following—	4 5 6
(i)	a person;	7
(ii)	an eligibility application;	8
(iii)	a prescribed notice;	9
(iv)	an exemption notice; and	10
(b)	on the commencement the commissioner may exercise the power under the amended Act in relation to the person, application or notice.	11 12 13
‘(2)	The commissioner may exercise the power under the amended Act in relation to the person, application or notice.	14 15
‘539	Disqualification orders for acts done or omissions made before commencement	16 17
	‘A court may make a disqualification order under section 357 in relation to a person convicted of an offence after the commencement arising out of an act done or omission made before the commencement.	18 19 20 21
‘540	Effect of conviction or charge for new disqualifying offence or new serious offence	22 23
‘(1)	For applying section 169(1)(a) or 170(a) in relation to a person convicted of a new disqualifying offence, it is immaterial when the offence was committed or when the person was convicted of the offence.	24 25 26 27
‘(2)	Section 240 applies in relation to a person holding a current positive notice who is charged with a new disqualifying	28 29

offence even if the charge, or the acts or omissions constituting the alleged offence, happened before the commencement.

- ‘(3) Section 298 applies in relation to a person holding a current positive exemption notice who is charged with a new disqualifying offence even if the charge, or the acts or omissions constituting the alleged offence, happened before the commencement.
- ‘(4) Without limiting this division, in applying the amended Act on and from the commencement, it is immaterial—
- (a) when a new disqualifying offence or new serious offence was committed; or
 - (b) when a person was convicted of a new disqualifying offence or new serious offence; or
 - (c) when a charge for a new disqualifying offence, or the acts or omissions constituting the alleged offence, happened.

Example—

An offence may have been committed, and the person convicted of the offence, before the commencement.’.

Maximum penalty—5 years imprisonment.	3
‘(2) The adult is liable to 10 years imprisonment if the person is—	4
(a) a person under 12 years; or	5
(b) a person the adult believes is under 12 years.	6
‘(3) For subsection (1)(a), a person engages in a sexual act if the person—	7
(a) allows a sexual act to be done to the person’s body; or	9
(b) does a sexual act to the person’s own body or the body of another person; or	10
(c) otherwise engages in an act of an indecent nature.	11
‘(4) Subsection (3) is not limited to sexual intercourse or acts involving physical contact.	12
‘(5) For subsection (1)(a)—	13
(a) it is not necessary to prove that the adult intended to facilitate the procurement of the person to engage in any particular sexual act; and	14
(b) it does not matter that, by reason of circumstances not known to the adult, it is impossible in fact for the person to engage in the sexual act; and	15
(c) it does not matter when the adult intended the person would be procured to engage in a sexual act.	16
‘(6) For subsection (1), it does not matter that the person is a fictitious person represented to the adult as a real person.	17
‘(7) Evidence that the person was represented to the adult as being under the age of 16 years, or 12 years, as the case may be, is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the adult believed the person was under that age.	18
‘(8) It is a defence to a charge under this section to prove the adult believed on reasonable grounds that the person was at least 16 years.	19

‘Subdivision 1	Interpretation	5
‘295	Definitions for div 8	6
	‘In this division—	7
	amended Act means this Act as amended by the Criminal Law (Child Exploitation and Dangerous Drugs) Amendment Act 2012 .	8 9 10
	commencement means the commencement of this section.	11
	new disqualified person means a person who is a disqualified person only because the person has been convicted or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence.	12 13 14
	new disqualifying offence means an offence that is a disqualifying offence under this Act but was not a disqualifying offence under this Act immediately before the commencement.	15 16 17 18
	new relevant disqualified person means a person who is a relevant disqualified person only because the person has been convicted or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence for which an imprisonment order has been or is imposed.	19 20 21 22
	new serious offence means an offence that is a serious offence under this Act but was not a serious offence under this Act immediately before the commencement.	23 24 25

‘Subdivision 2	Prescribed notice applications and prescribed notices	1 2
‘296	Existing prescribed notice application by new relevant disqualified person	3 4
‘(1)	This section applies if—	5
	(a) before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and	6 7
	(b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	8 9
	(c) at the commencement the person is a new relevant disqualified person.	10 11
‘(2)	The person’s application is taken to be withdrawn.	12
‘(3)	The chief executive must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application to the person and the funded non-government service provider who made the application.	13 14 15
‘297	Existing prescribed notice application if person charged with new disqualifying offence or is new disqualified person but not new relevant disqualified person	16 17 18 19
‘(1)	This section applies if—	20
	(a) before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and	21 22
	(b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	23 24
	(c) at the commencement the person—	25
	(i) is charged with a new disqualifying offence; or	26
	(ii) is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person.	27 28
	Note—	29
	If a person holds a positive notice, see also sections 300 and 301.	30

[s 31]

- ‘(2) Subsection (3) applies if— 1
- (a) at the commencement the person is charged with a new 2
disqualifying offence; or 3
 - (b) at the commencement the person is a new disqualified 4 person but not a new relevant disqualified person and, at 5
the time of making the application— 6
 - (i) was not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an 7 eligibility declaration; and 8
 - (ii) did not hold a positive notice. 9
- ‘(3) At the commencement— 10
- (a) the application is taken to be withdrawn; and 11
 - (b) the chief executive must give written notice about the 12 withdrawal of the application to the person and the 13 funded non-government service provider who made the 14 application. 15
- Note—* 16
- If a person charged with a new disqualifying offence also holds a 17 positive notice, see also sections 301 and 104. 18
- ‘(4) Subsection (5) applies if the person is a new disqualified 19 person but not a new relevant disqualified person and at the 20 time of making the application the person— 21
- (a) was not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an 22
eligibility declaration; and 23
 - (b) held a positive notice that was not suspended. 24
- ‘(5) At the commencement— 25
- (a) the person is taken to have been issued an eligibility 26 declaration other than for section 85(6)(b); and 27
 - (b) the chief executive must decide the application under the 28
amended Act. 29
- ‘(6) If the person is a new disqualified person but not a new 30 relevant disqualified person and, at the time of the application 31
the person was issued an eligibility declaration, at the 32 commencement the chief executive must decide the 33

application under the amended Act but section 85(6)(b) does not apply to the chief executive making the decision.	1 2
‘(7) For subsections (3) and (6), if before the commencement the chief executive had, under section 100, cancelled a negative notice issued to the person, on the commencement section 85(6)(a) does not apply to the chief executive making the decision.	3 4 5 6 7
‘298 Other existing prescribed notice applications	8
‘(1) This section applies if—	9
(a) before the commencement a prescribed notice application had been made about a person; and	10 11
(b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and	12 13
(c) section 296 or 297 does not apply.	14
‘(2) At the commencement the chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.	15 16
‘299 Current positive notice for new relevant disqualified person	17 18
‘(1) This section applies if—	19
(a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and	20 21
(b) immediately before the commencement the notice was current; and	22 23
(c) at the commencement the person is a new relevant disqualified person.	24 25
‘(2) At the commencement the amended Act applies and the chief executive must cancel the person’s positive notice and substitute a negative notice under section 102.	26 27 28
Note—	29
Under section 99, a person must return their cancelled positive notice and any positive notice card issued to the person to the chief executive.	30 31

[s 31]

- ‘(3) Also, if the positive notice is suspended under section 104 at the commencement, any application for the cancellation of the suspension under section 105 that has not been decided or withdrawn at the commencement is taken to have been withdrawn. 1
2
3
4
5
- ‘(4) The chief executive must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application under subsection (3) to the person and the funded non-government service provider who made the application. 6

11

- ‘(1) This section applies if— 12
- (a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and 13 14
- (b) immediately before the commencement the notice was current; and 15
16
- (c) at the commencement the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person. 17
18
- ‘(2) If, at the commencement, the person’s positive notice is suspended under section 104, the amended Act applies in relation to the positive notice. 19 20
21
- ‘(3) If, at the commencement, the person is not issued, or not taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration and the person’s positive notice is not suspended under section 104— 22
23
24
- (a) the person is taken to have been issued an eligibility declaration under section 107H; and 25 26
- (b) the amended Act applies in relation to the positive notice. 27
28
- ‘(4) If, at the commencement, the person is issued, or taken to have been issued, an eligibility declaration and the person’s positive notice is not suspended under section 104, the amended Act applies in relation to the person’s positive notice. 29
30
31
32
33

‘(5) If, after the commencement, the chief executive is to make a decision about the person under section 85, and it is the first time the chief executive is to make a decision under that section about the person after the commencement, section 85(6)(b) does not apply to the chief executive making the decision.	1 2 3 4 5 6
‘301 Other current positive notices	7
‘(1) This section applies if—	8
(a) before the commencement a person held a positive notice; and	9 10
(b) immediately before the commencement the positive notice was current; and	11 12
(c) section 299 or 300 does not apply.	13
‘(2) The amended Act applies to the person’s positive notice.	14
‘Subdivision 3 Exemption notice applications and exemption notices	15 16
‘302 Existing exemption notice application by new relevant disqualified person or person charged with a new disqualifying offence	17 18 19
‘(1) This section applies if—	20
(a) before the commencement an exemption notice application was made about a person; and	21 22
(b) immediately before the commencement the application has not been decided or withdrawn; and	23 24
(c) at the commencement—	25
(i) the person is a new relevant disqualified person; or	26
(ii) the person is charged with a new disqualifying offence.	27 28
‘(2) The application is taken to be withdrawn.	29

[s 31]

- ‘(3) The chief executive must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application to the person and the funded non-government service provider who made the application. 1
3
- ‘303 Existing exemption notice application if person is new disqualified person but not new relevant disqualified person 4
6
- ‘(1) This section applies if— 7
- (a) before the commencement an exemption notice application was made about a person; and 8 9
- (b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and 10
11
- (c) at the commencement the person is a new disqualified person but not a new relevant disqualified person. 12
13
- ‘(2) At the commencement the chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act. 14
15
- ‘(3) However, if before the commencement the chief executive had under section 100 cancelled a negative exemption notice issued to the person, on the commencement section 85(6)(a) does not apply to the chief executive making the decision. 16
17
19
- ‘(4) The chief executive may only act under section 89C(3) if the chief executive has acted under section 89D after the commencement. 20 21
22
- ‘304 Other existing exemption notice applications 23
- ‘(1) This section applies if— 24
- (a) before the commencement an exemption notice application was made about a person; and 25
26
- (b) immediately before the commencement the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and 27
28
- (c) section 302 or 303 does not apply. 29
- ‘(2) At the commencement the chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act. 30
31

‘(3) Also, the chief executive may only act under section 89C(3) if the chief executive has acted under section 89D after the commencement.

‘305 Current positive exemption notice for person whose CCYPCG positive notice is cancelled

‘(1) This section applies if—

- (a) before the commencement a person held a positive exemption notice; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement the notice was current; and
- (c) at the commencement the person no longer holds a CCYPCG positive notice.

‘(2) At the commencement the person’s positive exemption notice ceases to have effect under section 89F.

‘(3) Section 105C applies in relation to the positive exemption notice.

Note—

1 Section 105C(2) requires the chief executive to give notice to a person if the person’s positive exemption notice has ceased to have effect under section 89F.

2 Section 105C(5) requires the person to return their positive exemption notice to the chief executive.

‘(4) Also, if the person’s positive exemption notice was suspended under section 105A immediately before the commencement, any application for the cancellation of the suspension under section 105B that has not been decided or withdrawn at the commencement is taken to have been withdrawn.

‘(5) The chief executive must give written notice about the withdrawal of the application under subsection (4) to the person and the funded non-government service provider who made the application.

[s 53]

‘54	Proof of identity of a person convicted	1
‘(1)	If a person (the alleged offender) is alleged to have been convicted in Queensland, the Commonwealth or another State or Territory of an offence, an affidavit that complies with subsection (2) is proof, unless the contrary is proved, the alleged offender—	2 3 4 5 6
(a)	has been convicted of an offence stated in the affidavit under subsection (2)(c)(iii); and	7 8
(b)	is the person who is referred to as having been convicted in a certificate of conviction exhibited to the affidavit under subsection (2)(b).	9 10 11
‘(2)	The affidavit must—	12
(a)	purport to be made by an expert; and	13
(b)	exhibit a certificate of conviction for the offence the alleged offender is alleged to have been convicted of; and	14 15 16
(c)	state the following—	17
(i)	the expert’s field of expertise;	18
(ii)	the process and evidence used by the expert to determine the identity of the alleged offender based on available identifying records;	19 20 21
(iii)	any offence that, based on the results of the expert’s determination mentioned in subparagraph (ii), a police record states the alleged offender has been convicted of;	22 23 24 25
(iv)	that, based on the results of the expert’s determination mentioned in subparagraph (ii), and the police record mentioned in subparagraph (iii), the expert believes that the alleged offender is the person who is referred to as having been convicted in the certificate of conviction exhibited to the affidavit under subsection (2)(b).	26 27 28 29 30 31 32

- ‘(3) If a party to a proceeding intends to rely on the affidavit (the relying party), the party must give a copy of the affidavit to each other party to the proceeding—
- (a) at least 10 business days before the hearing day; or
 - (b) if, in the particular circumstances, the court considers it just to shorten the period mentioned in paragraph (a)—by a later date allowed by the court.
- ‘(4) If a party to the proceeding, other than the relying party, intends to challenge a matter stated in the affidavit, the party must give the relying party notice in writing of the matter to be challenged—
- (a) at least 3 business days before the hearing day; or
 - (b) if subsection (3)(b) applies and, in the particular circumstances, the court considers it just to shorten the period mentioned in paragraph (a)—by a later date allowed by the court.
- ‘(5) If a party to the proceeding (the notifying party) gives the relying party a notice under subsection (4), then, unless the notifying party otherwise agrees, the relying party must ensure that the expert is available at the hearing of the proceeding for cross-examination on the affidavit.
- ‘(6) In this section—
- certificate of conviction*, for an offence, means a document purporting to be the certificate of conviction, or a certified copy of the certificate of conviction, for the offence.
- corresponding law*, in relation to a provision of a Queensland law, means a law of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory corresponding, or substantially corresponding, to the provision.
- DNA sample* see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, schedule 6.
- expert* means a person who is qualified to give opinion evidence as an expert witness in relation to the identity of a person based on the type of identifying records used by the
