(3) The written application must be sworn.

(4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the authorised officer gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—
The magistrate may require additional information supporting the written application to be given by statutory declaration.

390T Issue of warrant

(1) The magistrate may issue the warrant for the place only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting there is at the place, or will be at the place within the next 7 days, a particular thing or activity that may provide evidence of—

(b) the way the application was made under section 390U was appropriate.

(2) After the magistrate issues the original warrant—

(a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the warrant to the authorised officer, including, for example, by sending a copy by fax or email, the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the warrant to the authorised officer; or

(6) This section does not limit section 390S.

390W Defect in relation to warrant

(1) A warrant is not invalidated by a defect in—

Division 3 Seizure by authorised officers and forfeiture

Subdivision 1 Power to seize 390ZG Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant

(1) An authorised officer who enters a place the authorised officer may enter under this chapter without the consent of an occupier of the place and without a warrant may seize a thing at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes the thing is evidence of—

(a) the commission of an offence against this Act; or

(b) a breach of a condition of a person’s lease, licence or permit.

(2) However, if the authorised officer enters the place under section 390N(1)(c), (d) or (e), the authorised officer may seize a thing at the place only if the authorised officer also reasonably believes the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—

(a) hidden, lost or destroyed; or

390ZH Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered with consent or warrant

(1) This section applies if—

lease, licence or permit; and

(b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the

(3) If the authorised officer enters the place under a warrant, the authorised officer may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.

(4) The authorised officer may also seize anything else at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes—

(a) the thing is evidence of—

(i) the commission of an offence against this Act; or

(ii) a breach of a condition of a person’s lease, licence or permit; and

(b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being hidden, lost or destroyed.

(5) The authorised officer may also seize a thing at believes it has just been used in—

(a) committing an offence against this Act; or

(b) breaching a condition of a person’s lease, licence or permit.

390ZI Seizure of property subject to security

(1) An authorised officer may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.

(2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person’s claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the authorised officer or a person acting under the direction or authority of the authorised officer.

Subdivision 2  Powers to support seizure

390ZJ Power to secure seized thing

(1) Having seized a thing under this division, an authorised officer may—

(a) leave it at the place where it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or

(b) move it from the place of seizure.

(2) For subsection (1)(a), the authorised officer may, for example—

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

Subdivision 3 Safeguards for seized things

390ZM Receipt and information notice for seized thing
(1) This section applies if an authorised officer seizes anything under section 390ZG or 390ZH unless—
(a) the authorised officer reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or

(b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the authorised officer to comply with this section.

(2) The authorised officer must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—

(a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and

(b) an information notice about the decision to seize it.

(3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.

(4) The receipt and information notice may—

(a) be given in the same document; and

(b) relate to more than 1 seized thing.

(5) The authorised officer may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the authorised officer reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the authorised officer under this chapter.

(6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the authorised officer continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was seized to keep it under observation.
390ZN Access to seized thing

1. Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the authorised officer who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—
   - (a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and
   - (b) if it is a document—to copy it.

2. Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.

3. The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.

1. This section applies if a seized thing is not—
   - (a) forfeited or transferred under subdivision 4 or 5; or

2. As soon as the chief executive stops being satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing, the chief executive must return it to its owner.

3. If the thing is not returned to its owner within 3 months after it was seized, the owner may apply to the chief executive for its return.

4. Within 30 days after receiving the application, the chief executive must—
   - (a) if the chief executive is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing and decides to retain it—give the owner an information notice about the decision, including the grounds for retaining the thing; or Land, Explosives and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2018
Part 7 Amendment of Land Act 1994

Section 203

(b) otherwise—return the thing to the owner.

(a) the thing is being, or is likely to be, examined; or

(b) the thing is needed, or may be needed, for the purposes of—

(i) a proceeding for an offence against this Act that is likely to be started or that has been started but not completed; or

(ii) an appeal from a decision in a proceeding for an offence against this Act; or

(c) it is not lawful for the owner to possess the thing.

(6) Subsection (5) does not limit the grounds that may be reasonable grounds for retaining the seized thing.

(8) In this section—

examine includes analyse, test, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify.

Subdivision 4 Forfeiture

390ZP Forfeiture by chief executive decision

(1) The chief executive may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an authorised officer—

(a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or
(b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner; or

(c) for a thing seized for an offence—reasonably believes it is necessary to keep the thing to prevent it being used to commit the offence for which it was seized.

(2) However, the authorised officer is not required to—

(a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or

(b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner.

Example for paragraph (b)—

The owner of the thing has migrated to another country.

(3) Regard must be had to the thing’s condition, nature and value in deciding—

(a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and

(b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

390ZQ Information notice about forfeiture decision

(1) If the chief executive decides under section 390ZP(1) to forfeit a thing, the chief executive must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice about the decision.

(2) If the decision was made under section 390ZP(1)(a) or (b), the information notice may be given by leaving it at the place where the thing was seized, in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
(3) The information notice must state that the former owner may apply for a stay of the decision if the former owner appeals against the decision.

(4) However, subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if—

(a) the decision was made under section 390ZP(1)(a) or (b); and

(b) the place where the thing was seized is—

(i) a public place; or

(ii) a place where the notice is unlikely to be read by the former owner.

390ZS How property may be dealt with

(1) This section applies if, under section 390ZR, a thing becomes the property of the State.

(2) The chief executive may deal with the thing as the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.

(3) The chief executive must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal against the forfeiture under this chapter.
(4) If the chief executive sells the thing, the chief executive must, after deducting the costs of the sale, make reasonable efforts to return the proceeds of the sale to the former owner of the thing.

(5) For subsection (4), the costs of the sale include the amount of any costs reasonably incurred, after the thing was forfeited or transferred to the State, in storing or transporting the thing.

(6) This section is subject to any disposal order made for the thing.

Division 4 Disposal orders

a thing, the court—

(a) may require notice to be given to anyone the court considers appropriate, including, for example, any person who may have any property in the thing; and
