To continue Queensland Women's Week celebration, today I'm celebrating Justice Roslyn Atkinson.

Whilst I was finishing my law degree, I was fortunate enough to be employed as Her Honour's Associate.

I'll never forget in my job interview, Her Honour asked me what I wanted to be and I replied that I'd like to become a barrister. She looked at me and asked, 'why not a high court judge?' 🙋🏻👏

It was this question that ultimately led me to now be sitting at the Queensland Cabinet table.

I owe so much to the friendship and mentorship of Justice Atkinson and for her unwavering belief in advancing opportunities for Qld women and girls. See less
