	‘ periodically ’.	18
	(2) Section 18(1) and (2)—	19
	omit, insert—	20
	‘(1) A reportable offender must report his or her personal details to the police commissioner every 3 months, unless the offender is required, under subsection (2A), to make the report every calendar month.	21 22 23 24

‘(2) A reportable offender who is required under subsection (1) to make a report every 3 months must make each report by the end of the third calendar month after the month in which the offender last reported under this Act, or a corresponding Act.

Example—

J last reported his personal details to the police commissioner on 11 March 2010. This section requires J to make a further report of those details on or before 30 June 2010. If J makes the further report on 2 May 2010, this section requires J to make the next report on or before 31 August 2010 ... (and so on).

‘(2A) If a reportable offender is found guilty of an offence against section 50(1), the offender must report his or her personal details to the police commissioner every calendar month for the shorter of the following periods—

- (a) 1 year after the offender is sentenced for the offence;
- (b) the period ending when the offender’s reporting period ends.

Note—

If, at the end of 1 year after the reportable offender is sentenced for the offence, the offender’s reporting period has not ended, the offender must report periodically as required under subsection (1).’.
