

Health and Community Services Committee

Report on Subordinate Legislation

Report No. 3

The Health and Community Services Committee is responsible for examining subordinate legislation within its portfolio areas and considering the policy to be given effect, the application of fundamental legislative principles and the lawfulness of the subordinate legislation (s.93(1) Parliament of Queensland Act 2001). The committee's responsibility also includes monitoring the operation of the Statutory Instruments Act 1992 as it relates to subordinate legislation. The committee reports to the Legislative Assembly approximately quarterly on all subordinate legislation which it considers, and separately where the committee has concerns about consistency with fundamental legislative principles and related issues.

Recommendation

The committee recommends that the Legislative Assembly note the subordinate legislation (No. 257, 271, 288, 289, 290, 306, 308 of 2011 and No. 13, 23, 24 and 25 of 2012).

Subordinate legislation examined

The committee has considered the following subordinate legislation made in 2011 and 2012. The committee did not identify any significant issues regarding consistency with fundamental legislative principles or the lawfulness of the subordinate legislation.
