Division 2 Formal acquisitions 16 happening before 17
 commencement if advice 18
 given under former section 19
 51 or 51A 20

429 Application of div 2 21

This division applies if— 22

- (a) a formal acquisition affecting a community titles scheme happened before the commencement; and 23 24
25
- (b) before the commencement, the constructing authority for the acquisition gave the body corporate for the scheme advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1); and 26
27
28
29
30

- (c) at the commencement, a request to record a new community management statement for the scheme reflecting the acquisition has not been lodged.

430 Process if body corporate consented to new community management statement

- (1) This section applies if, at the commencement, the body corporate has consented to the recording of a new community management statement to reflect the formal acquisition.
- (2) The body corporate must endorse its consent on the new community management statement (if it has not already done so) and give the endorsed new statement to the constructing authority.
- (3) If the body corporate gives an endorsed new community management statement to the constructing authority under subsection (2), the constructing authority may lodge a request to record the endorsed new statement.
- (4) If the body corporate has not given an endorsed new community management statement to the constructing authority within 5 business days after the commencement, the constructing authority may lodge a request to record a new community management statement that is the same as the proposed new community management statement the constructing authority gave to the body corporate for endorsing its consent.
- Note—*
- See, however, section 64.
- (5) Before lodging a request to record a new community management statement under subsection (4), the constructing authority must sign and date the new statement.

[s 10]

- (6) The registrar may record a new community management statement mentioned in subsection (4) despite section 54(2) and the Land Title Act, section 115K(1)(d). 1
2
4
- (7) The constructing authority is responsible for the costs of recording the endorsed new statement. 5 6

431 Process if body corporate has decided lot entitlement schedule changes but has not consented to new community management statement 7
10

- (1) This section applies if, at the commencement— 11
 - (a) the body corporate has, for the formal acquisition, decided the changes to the lot entitlement schedules for the community titles scheme under former section 51(2) or 51A(2) (whether or not it has given notice of its decision to the constructing authority under former section 51(5) or 51A(5)); and 12
13
15
16
17
18
 - (b) the body corporate has not consented to the recording of a new community management statement to reflect the acquisition. 19 20
21
- (2) If it has not already done so, the constructing authority must give the relevant documents for the formal acquisition to the body corporate. 22
23
24
- (3) New section 51(5) to (11) or 51A(4) to (10) apply in relation to the formal acquisition as if— 25
26
 - (a) the relevant documents given by the constructing authority to the body corporate were given under new section 51(1) or 51A(1); and 27
28
29
30
 - (b) the reference to the 4 month period in new section 51(5) and (7) or 51A(4) and (6) were a reference to the prescribed consent period. 31
32
33

- (4) For subsection (3), the prescribed consent period is—
- (a) if the constructing authority gave the body corporate advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1), and the relevant documents for the acquisition, at least 4 months before the commencement—the period ending at the commencement; or
 - (b) if the constructing authority gave the body corporate advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1) at least 4 months before the commencement but gave or gives the relevant documents for the acquisition to the body corporate at a later time—the period ending on the day that is 3 months after the constructing authority gave or gives the body corporate the relevant documents; or
 - (c) otherwise—the period ending on the day that is 4 months after the constructing authority gave or gives the body corporate the relevant documents.

432 Process if body corporate has not decided lot entitlement schedule changes

- (1) This section applies if, at the commencement, the body corporate has not, for the formal acquisition, decided the changes to the lot entitlement schedules for the community titles scheme under former section 51(2) or 51A(2).
- (2) If it has not already done so, the constructing authority must give the relevant documents for the formal acquisition to the body corporate.
- (3) New section 51(2) to (11) or 51A(2) to (10) apply in relation to the formal acquisition as if—

[s 10]

- (a) the relevant documents given by the constructing authority to the body corporate were given under new section 51(1) or 51A(1); and
 - (b) the reference to the 3 month period in new section 51(2) or 51A(2) were a reference to the prescribed decision period; and
 - (c) the reference to the 4 month period in new section 51(5) and (7) or 51A(4) and (6) were a reference to the prescribed consent period.
- Example of the operation of paragraphs (b) and (c)—*
- Four months before the commencement, the constructing authority gives the body corporate—
- (a) advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1); and
 - (b) the relevant documents for the acquisition.
- Under subsection (4), the prescribed consent period for applying new section 51(5) and (7) or 51A(4) and (6) is the period ending at the commencement (see subsection (4)(b)(i)), and the prescribed decision period for applying new section 51(2) or 51A(2) is the period ending 30 days before the commencement.
- (4) For subsection (3)—
 - (a) the prescribed decision period is the period ending 30 days before the relevant prescribed consent period ends, which may be a period ending on or before the commencement; and
 - (b) the prescribed consent period is—
 - (i) if the constructing authority gave the body corporate advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1), and the relevant documents for the acquisition, at least 4 months before the commencement—the period ending at the commencement; or

- (ii) if the constructing authority gave the body corporate advice about the acquisition as mentioned in former section 51(1) or 51A(1) at least 4 months before the commencement but gave or gives the relevant documents for the acquisition to the body corporate at a later time—the period ending on the day that is 3 months after the constructing authority gave or gives the body corporate the relevant documents; or
 - (iii) otherwise—the period ending on the day that is 4 months after the constructing authority gave or gives the body corporate the relevant documents.

433 Body corporate may ask constructing authority to provide lot entitlement adjustment advice

- (1) This section applies for section 432 if the body corporate has not obtained the lot entitlement adjustment advice under former section 51(2) or 51A(2).
- (2) The body corporate may, by written notice, ask the constructing authority to obtain the lot entitlement adjustment advice and give it to the body corporate.
- (3) The constructing authority must obtain the lot entitlement adjustment advice and give it to the body corporate as soon as practicable.
- (4) This section applies even if the constructing authority lodges a request to record a new community management statement without the body corporate's consent, under new section 51(7) or 51A(6) as applied under section 432.

	13 Exemption for the sale of liquor at fundraising event	21
		22
	(1) This Act does not apply to a sale of liquor by an eligible entity at a fundraising event if—	23
		24
	(a) all the net proceeds from the sale of liquor will be used for the benefit of the community; and	25
		26
		27
	(b) the sale of liquor is ancillary to the fundraising event; and	28
		29

[s 127]

- (c) the liquor is sold between 7a.m. and midnight; and 1 2
 - (d) the liquor is sold during a period not exceeding a total of 8 hours; and 3 4
 - (e) the liquor is sold in open containers for consumption at the event; and 5 6
 - (f) the liquor is sold by an adult; and 7
 - (g) the eligible entity ensures the sale of liquor does not create an unsafe environment at the event. 8
10
- Example of when the sale of liquor creates an unsafe environment at the event—* 11 12
- the entity allows a person to whom the liquor is sold to remain at the event when the person is clearly unduly intoxicated, behaving in a disorderly way, causing a disturbance to other persons or demonstrating violent behaviour 13
14
15
16
17
- (2) However, this Act does apply to the sale of liquor at a fundraising event if— 18 19
- (a) the liquor is sold at the event in a manner that encourages rapid or excessive consumption of liquor; or 20 21
22
 - (b) the liquor is sold at the event to a person who— 23 24
 - (i) is a minor; or 25
 - (ii) is unduly intoxicated or disorderly; or 26
 - (c) the liquor is sold on Christmas Day, Good Friday or before 1p.m. on Anzac Day; or 27 28
 - (d) the event is held— 29
 - (i) in a relevant restricted area; or 30
 - (ii) at licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates. 31
32

- (3) For subsection (1), an entity is an eligible entity for the sale of liquor at a fundraising event if—
- (a) it is a non-profit entity for the event; and
 - (b) neither the entity nor an executive officer of the entity has, within 6 months immediately before the event, been given a non-compliance notice under section 14C(3) stating that the sale of liquor must cease immediately; and
 - (c) for an entity or an executive officer of the entity that is a licensee or permittee or former licensee or permittee, neither the entity nor the executive officer has, within the 5 years immediately before the event—
 - (i) been given a written notice for an urgent suspension of the entity’s or executive officer’s licence under section 137C; or
 - (ii) been convicted of an offence under section 148A(2) or (4); or
 - (iii) been convicted of an offence under section 156(1); or
 - (iv) been convicted of an offence under section 169; or
 - (v) breached a condition of a licence or permit relating to minimising alcohol-related disturbances, or public disorder, in a locality.
- (4) However, an entity is not an eligible entity if—
- (a) it is a criminal organisation under the Criminal Organisation Act 2009; or
 - (b) when the fundraising event is held, the entity or an executive officer of the entity is disqualified from holding a licence under part 5, division 3, subdivision 3.

Maximum penalty—
 - (a) for an individual—100 penalty units; or
 - (b) for a corporation—500 penalty units.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to an entity if, had the entity obtained information in the QGIS database in the performance of the entity's functions under another Act, use of the information would not have been restricted in the way stated in subsection (2).

22 Use of information permitted despite other Act 1

An entity, or persons within the entity, to whom 2 restricted information obtained under section 19(1) or 3
(2) is disclosed, may use the information for the 4 purpose for which it was obtained, despite any other 5
Act restricting or prohibiting the use of the 6
information. 7

23 Protection from liability 8

- (1) This section applies to a person who, acting 9
honestly, makes information in the QGIS 10 database available to an entity— 11
- (a) allowed access under section 18(3); or 12
 - (b) entitled to access to restricted information 13
under section 19(1); or 14
 - (c) granted access to restricted information 15
under section 19(2). 16
- (2) The person is not liable, civilly, criminally or 17 under an administrative process, for making the 18
information available. 19
- (3) Also, merely because the person makes the 20 information available, the person can not be held 21 to have— 22
- (a) breached any code of professional etiquette 23
or ethics; or 24
 - (b) departed from accepted standards of 25
professional conduct. 26
- (4) Without limiting subsections (2) and (3)— 27
- (a) in a proceeding for defamation, the person 28 has a defence of absolute privilege for 29 making the information available; and 30
 - (b) if the person would otherwise be required to 31
maintain confidentiality about the 32

[s 179]

information under an Act, oath or rule of law or practice, the person—	1
	2
(i) does not contravene the Act, oath or rule of law or practice by making the information available; and	3
