Part	5	Wages and employment conditions for apprentices and trainees	1 2 3
135	App	orentice's and trainee's employment conditions	4
	(1)	An apprentice or trainee is entitled to the same employment conditions as those fixed by the industrial instrument applicable to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed.	5 6 7 8
	(2)	An apprentice or trainee is entitled to wages at—	9
		(a) if an industrial instrument applying to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed states a rate payable to apprentices or trainees—the rate stated in the instrument; or	10 11 12 13
		(b) otherwise—the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable for the relevant calling to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed.	14 15 16 17
		Examples—	18
		1 An apprentice plumber is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a federal award applies. The apprentice is entitled to the rate of wages stated in the federal award rather than a State award.	19 20 21 22
		An apprentice carpenter is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a certified agreement applies. The certified agreement does not state the rate of wages payable to an apprentice. The apprentice is entitled to wages at the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable to a qualified carpenter under the certified agreement.	23 24 25 26 27 28
	(3)	If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance in addition to wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid—	29 30 31
		(a) if, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the percentage of the	32 33

		allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages; or	1 2
		(b) if, under the instrument, the allowance is not taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the full allowance.	3 4
	(4)	If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance that is assessed as a percentage of the tradesperson's wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages.	5 6 7 8 9
	(5)	Subsection (4) applies whether or not, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages.	10 11

	(2)	In making an order, the commission may consider any matter it considers relevant, including—	24 25
		(a) the age, competency, or method of progression through training of the apprentices or trainees; and	26 27
		(b) an industrial instrument.	28
	(3)	Despite section 135, if there is an inconsistency between an order and an industrial instrument (other than a certified	29 30

	The Work Health and Safety Act 2011, section 115 and a provision of a corresponding WHS law (within the meaning of that Act) that corresponds to section 115 of that Act do not apply in relation to an application under section 273.
	Note—
	Ordinarily, if an employee who is a worker under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 makes an application under section 273 for an order to stop the worker from being bullied in the workplace, section 115 of that Act and a corresponding provision of a corresponding WHS law would prohibit a proceeding from being commenced, or an application from being made or continued, under that law in relation to the bullying. This section removes that prohibition.
