Thank you XXXXX for your email and phone call.

The process we used to assess applications was dividing into three main categories, South East Queensland, regional, and indigenous owned businesses. Applications were then further split into the five identified priority areas.

Each application was assigned a number and put through a randomiser. They were assessed randomly until funds for the round were exhausted. This does not mean you did not submit a good application.

Please consider reapplying for the next round which opens on the 8 March 2017.

Regards
xxxxx
