

TEACHER ADVISORY GROUP

Nomination Form

Thank you for your interest in TAG 2024. As part of the nomination process, we are asking candidates to complete the nomination form below and return to Parliamentary.Education@parliament.qld.gov.au by COB on 14 February 2024.

Overview

The teacher advisory group will bring together educators from various levels and sectors of education in Queensland, to assist in the development of Parliamentary Education resources. Parliamentary Education will work with the group to improve awareness of the role of the Legislative Assembly, its committees and members in our democratic system of government.

Purpose

1. Provide insight and advice on the development of activities, events and resources in line with the curriculum and contemporary classroom practice
2. Identify opportunities for broadening the reach of the program, particularly to engage with educators and students in regional and remote communities

Commitment

Group members will be appointed for the calendar year, and may seek continued membership. Parliamentary Education may renew nominations during the 12 month term if needs arise. The Teacher Advisory Group will meet quarterly. Advice may be sought from panel members in between meetings via email or phone appointment.

Requirements

- an understanding of how civics and citizenship and/or legal studies can be embedded across content areas in Queensland, including but not limited to Civics & Citizenship and Legal Studies curriculums;
- practical experience in designing and delivering informative and engaging learning programs;
- a demonstrated interest in parliamentary education; and
- experience using a variety of educational techniques and methodologies to improve student learning (including for face-to-face, blended, flipped, mobile and online environments).
