A Bill

for

An Act for the purpose of disestablishing vicious lawless associations

The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Vicious Lawless Association Disestablishment Act 2013.

2 Objects

- (1) The objects of the Act are to—
 - (a) disestablish associations that encourage, foster or support persons who commit serious offences; and
 - (b) increase public safety and security by the disestablishment of the associations; and
 - (c) deny to persons who commit serious offences the assistance and support gained from association with other persons who participate in the affairs of the associations.
- (2) The objects are to be achieved by—
 - (a) imposing significant terms of imprisonment for vicious lawless associates who commit declared offences; and
 - (b) removing the possibility of parole for vicious lawless associates serving terms of imprisonment except in limited circumstances; and
 - (c) encouraging vicious lawless associates to cooperate with law enforcement agencies in the investigation and prosecution of serious criminal activity.

3 Definitions

In this Act—

association means any of the following—

- (a) a corporation;
- (b) an unincorporated association;

- (c) a club or league;
 - (d) any other group of 3 or more persons by whatever name called, whether associated formally or informally and whether the group is legal or illegal.

base sentence, for a vicious lawless associate, means the sentence imposed on the associate under section 7(1)(a).

declared offence means—

- (a) an offence against a provision mentioned in schedule 1; or
- (b) an offence prescribed under a regulation to be a declared offence.

further sentence, for a vicious lawless associate, means a sentence imposed on the associate under section 7(1)(b) or (c).

office bearer, of an association, means—

- (a) a person who is a president, vice-president, sergeant-at-arms, treasurer, secretary, director or another office bearer or a shareholder of the association; or
- (b) a person who (whether by words or conduct, or in any other way) asserts, declares or advertises himself or herself to hold a position of authority of any kind within the association.

4 Meaning of *participant

For this Act, a person is a participant in the affairs of an association if the person—

- (a) (whether by words or conduct, or in any other way) asserts, declares or advertises his or her membership of, or association with, the association; or
- (b) (whether by words or conduct, or in any other way) seeks to be a member of, or to be associated with, the association; or

[s 5]

- (c) has attended more than 1 meeting or gathering of persons who participate in the affairs of the association in any way; or
- (d) has taken part on any 1 or more occasions in the affairs of the association in any other way.

5 Meaning of vicious lawless associate

- (1) For this Act, a person is a vicious lawless associate if the person—
 - (a) commits a declared offence; and
 - (b) at the time the offence is committed, or during the course of the commission of the offence, is a participant in the affairs of an association (relevant association); and
 - (c) did or omitted to do the act that constitutes the declared offence for the purposes of, or in the course of participating in the affairs of, the relevant association.
- (2) However, a person is not a vicious lawless associate if the person proves that the relevant association is not an association that has, as 1 of its purposes, the purpose of engaging in, or conspiring to engage in, declared offences.

6 Proof person is an office bearer of an association

For this Act, proof that a person—

- (a) has asserted, declared or advertised that he or she is an office bearer of an association; or
- (b) is commonly treated by other persons who participate in the affairs of the association as an office bearer of the association; or
- (c) exercises or purports to exercise authority in the affairs of the association;

is, unless the contrary is proved, sufficient proof that the person is an office bearer of the association.

7 Sentencing

- (1) A court sentencing a vicious lawless associate for a declared offence must impose all of the following sentences on the vicious lawless associate—
 - (a) a sentence for the offence under the law apart from this Act and without regard to any further punishment that may or will be imposed under this Act;
 - (b) a further sentence of 15 years imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility;
 - (c) if the vicious lawless associate was, at the time of the commission of the offence, or during the course of the commission of the offence, an office bearer of the relevant association—a further sentence of 10 years imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility which must be served cumulatively with the further sentence mentioned in paragraph (b).
- (2) A further sentence—
 - (a) must not be mitigated or reduced under any other Act or law; and
 - (b) must be ordered to be served cumulatively with the base sentence imposed.
- (3) However, if the base sentence does not—
 - (a) impose a term of imprisonment on the vicious lawless associate; or
 - (b) require the associate to immediately serve a term of imprisonment in a corrective services facility;

the associate is to immediately begin to serve the further sentence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) and the base sentence is to have effect, so far as practicable, at the end of the further sentence or sentences.
- (4) Also, if the base sentence imposed on the vicious lawless associate is life imprisonment, the further sentence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is to have effect from the parole eligibility date applying to the associate as a prisoner under the Corrective Services Act 2006, section 181.

[s 8]

- (5) If a sentencing court is sentencing a vicious lawless associate for more than 1 declared offence, the sentencing court may impose further sentences for only 1 of the offences.
- (6) However, when deciding which declared offence to use for imposing further sentences, the court must choose the offence that will result in the vicious lawless associate serving the longest period of imprisonment available under this Act for the offences.

8 No parole and parole eligibility date fixed only for total period of imprisonment

- (1) A vicious lawless associate is not eligible for parole during any period of imprisonment for a further sentence.
- (2) For this Act and the Corrective Services Act 2006, the parole eligibility date for the vicious lawless associate's period of imprisonment (other than if the base sentence is life imprisonment) is the day that is worked out by adding the period of any further sentence imposed under this Act to the notional parole eligibility date fixed under subsection (3).

Note—

Section 7(4) has effect if the base sentence is life imprisonment.

- (3) The notional parole eligibility date for a vicious lawless associate is the parole eligibility date or parole release date for the base sentence fixed as provided under another Act or as fixed by the sentencing court.

Example—

A vicious lawless associate is sentenced to 5 years imprisonment for a declared offence. The vicious lawless associate is an office bearer in an association and the declared offence was done for the purposes of the association. So the further sentences imposed on the associate total 25 years. The sentencing court fixes a parole eligibility date for the base sentence as a date 3 years in the future resulting in a notional parole eligibility date under this subsection. Under subsection (2), for this Act and the Corrective Services Act 2006, the associate's parole eligibility date for the period of imprisonment is a date 28 years in the future.

- (4) In this section—

period of imprisonment see the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 4.

9 Cooperation with law enforcement authorities to be taken into account

- (1) Despite section 7(2) but subject to subsection (2), the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 13A applies to an offender liable to be sentenced as a vicious lawless associate.
- (2) For the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 13A, an offender is taken to have undertaken to cooperate with law enforcement agencies in a proceeding about an offence if and only if—
 - (a) the offender has offered in writing to cooperate with law enforcement agencies in a proceeding about a declared offence; and
 - (b) the offer has been accepted in writing by the commissioner of the police service.
- (3) When deciding whether to accept an offer of cooperation, the commissioner must be satisfied that the cooperation will be of significant use in a proceeding about a declared offence.
- (4) The Judicial Review Act 1991, part 4 does not apply to the commissioner's decision.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the decision—
 - (a) is final and conclusive; and
 - (b) can not be challenged, appealed against, reviewed, quashed, set aside or called in question in any other way under the Judicial Review Act 1991 or otherwise (whether by the Supreme Court, another court, a tribunal or another entity); and
 - (c) is not subject to any declaratory, injunctive or other order of the Supreme Court, another court, a tribunal or another entity on any ground.
- (6) The Judicial Review Act 1991, part 5 applies to the decision to the extent it is affected by jurisdictional error.

[s 10]

- (7) To remove any doubt, it is declared that section 8(1) does not apply to an offender whose offer to cooperate with law enforcement agencies in a proceeding about an offence is accepted by the commissioner under subsection (2).
- (8) In this section—
decision includes a decision or conduct leading up to or forming part of the process of making a decision.

10 Regulation-making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations declaring offences for the purposes of this Act.

11 Act to be reviewed

- (1) The Minister must review this Act as soon as reasonably practicable after 3 years after its commencement.
- (2) The objects of the review include deciding whether the Act is operating effectively and meeting its objects.
- (3) The Minister must appoint an appropriately qualified person to undertake the review.
