The Queensland Parliamentary Record for the 55th Parliament (24 March 2015 – 29 October 2017) is a comprehensive source of information about the Queensland Parliament since 1860.

While Part 1 of the Parliamentary Record provides a record of the life of the 55th Parliament, Part 2 provides historical information, including an alphabetical register of all members of the Queensland Parliament from 1860 to 2017.

The recent editions of the Parliamentary Record are available on the Parliament’s website (www.parliament.qld.gov.au). The website also provides access to two other sources of information. The Former Members Register includes biographical information on all former members of Queensland Parliament. The Record of Proceedings, commonly referred to as Hansard, is the official record of debates and procedures of Queensland Parliament. The complete Hansard from 1860 onwards is also available in a digital and searchable form.

Among notable developments in the 55th Parliament was the passing of the Electoral (Improving Representation) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2016 (Qld), which received royal assent on 5 May 2016. The Act increased the number of members of the Legislative Assembly from 89 members to 93. This Parliamentary Record is the last in relation to 89 members, which has been the number of members since 1986 when it increased from 82.

The Parliamentary Record for the 55th Parliament has been prepared by staff of the Parliamentary Library and the Chamber, Education and Communication Services team.

The Parliamentary Library would appreciate notification of any discrepancies or errors found by readers. Please contact the Parliamentary Librarian on telephone (07) 3553 6200.
