"... the hon. member for Port Curtis said that I was associated in some way with some stinking business at the C.O.D.—", 1623.

“In view of your obvious antagonism to this humanitarian system—", 1636.

"... the Minister descended to the lowest depths tonight in reply to the second-reading debate.", 2224.

“This certainly lets the union see what happens to any confidential discussion with the Minister. He would be prepared to sell anybody out when he is cornered.", 2226.

"He has been deliberately misleading the Chamber.", 2228.

“He alleged that the particular companies which were negotiating with the Government initially were not too happy with the politics of the previous administration.", 2295.

"... the spinelessness of Supreme Court and District Court judges.", 3062.

Tedious repetition not in order, 2818.
Withdrawal of statement must be unconditional, 1319, 2226.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY [Gaven, Eric John, Esquire (South Coast)]—[see also “Gaven, Eric John, Esquire”]—
Chair—
Must be addressed, 2481, 2486, 2644, 2649, 2650.
Must not be embarrassed, 2721.
Will protect member addressing Chair, 2644, 2649.
Cross-firing in debate out of order, 2649, 2654.
Point of order, Invalid, 2781.
Statements ordered to be withdrawn—
“According to his own evidence given in court this year he endeavoured to invest a bank's money on his own behalf. When he came off second best he crawled into the witness box to try to retrieve the bank's money, which he was investing on his own behalf. It was the most shocking example of misrepresentation I have ever seen. The settlement that was enforced was purely blackmail on the part of the hon. member. Had the investment proved successful he would have taken the whole of the profits but because it failed, like the disgruntled punter he wanted to get his money back. In my estimation, he claimed, very dishonestly, that he acted on the advice of the banker when in fact—.”, 490.

“The hon. member had the guts to commit perjury. That is what he had.”, 490.
