The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Termination of Pregnancy Act 2018.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Purposes

The purposes of this Act are—

- (a) to enable reasonable and safe access by women to terminations; and
- (b) to regulate the conduct of registered health practitioners in relation to terminations.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.

Part 2 Performance of terminations by registered health practitioners

5 Termination by medical practitioner at not more than 22 weeks

A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is not more than 22 weeks pregnant.

6 Termination by medical practitioner after 22 weeks

- (1) A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is more than 22 weeks pregnant if—
  - (a) the medical practitioner considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed; and
  - (b) the medical practitioner has consulted with another medical practitioner who also considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed.
- (2) In considering whether a termination should be performed on a woman, a medical practitioner must consider—
  - (a) all relevant medical circumstances; and
  - (b) the woman’s current and future physical, psychological and social circumstances; and
  - (c) the professional standards and guidelines that apply to the medical practitioner in relation to the performance of the termination.
- (3) In an emergency, a medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is more than 22 weeks pregnant, without acting under subsections (1) and (2), if the medical practitioner considers it is necessary to perform the termination to save the woman’s life or the life of another unborn child.

[s 7]

7 Registered health practitioners who may assist

- (1) A medical practitioner may assist in the performance of a termination on a woman by another medical practitioner.
- (2) A nurse, midwife, pharmacist, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health practitioner or other registered health practitioner prescribed by regulation may, in the practice of his or her health profession, assist in the performance of a termination on a woman by a medical practitioner.
- (3) However, subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to a termination that the assisting registered health practitioner knows, or ought reasonably to know, is being performed by the medical practitioner other than under section 5 or 6.
- (4) A reference in this section to assisting in the performance of a termination by a medical practitioner includes dispensing, supplying or administering a termination drug on the medical practitioner's instruction.

8 Registered health practitioner with conscientious objection

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a person asks a registered health practitioner to—
    - (i) perform a termination on a woman; or
    - (ii) assist in the performance of a termination on a woman; or
    - (iii) make a decision under section 6 whether a termination on a woman should be performed; or
    - (iv) advise the person about the performance of a termination on a woman; and
  - (b) the practitioner has a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination.
- (2) The registered health practitioner must disclose the practitioner's conscientious objection to the person.

- (3) If the request is by a woman for the registered health practitioner to perform a termination on the woman, or to advise the woman about the performance of a termination on the woman, the practitioner must refer the woman, or transfer her care, to—
  - (a) another registered health practitioner who, in the first practitioner's belief, can provide the requested service and does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination; or
  - (b) a health service provider at which, in the practitioner's belief, the requested service can be provided by another registered health practitioner who does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination.
- (4) This section does not limit any duty owed by a registered health practitioner to provide a service in an emergency.

9 Compliance with this part relevant to professional conduct or performance

- (1) In considering a matter under an Act about a registered health practitioner's professional conduct or performance, regard may be had to whether the practitioner—
  - (a) performs a termination on a woman other than as authorised under section 5 or 6; or
  - (b) assists in the performance of a termination on a woman other than as authorised under section 7; or
  - (c) contravenes section 8.
- (2) The matters to which subsection (1) applies include matters arising in—
  - (a) a notification under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland); or
