17D Insertion of new s 69A

After section 69—

insert—

69A Person in paid regulated engagement convicted of serious offence

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a prescribed notice application or exemption notice application has been made about a person in relation to whom section 65, 66 or 67 applies; and

(b) the application has not been decided or withdrawn; and
(c) the chief executive becomes aware the person was convicted of a serious offence—

(i) if the person held a positive notice or positive exemption notice when the application was made—after the application was made; or

(ii) if the person held a positive notice or positive exemption notice that expired before the application was made—after the person’s notice expired; or

(iii) otherwise—before or after the application was made.

(2) The chief executive must give the person a written notice that states—

(a) the person is not allowed to work at a service outlet of a service provider before the person’s application is decided; and

(b) it is an offence for the person to continue to work at a service outlet of a service provider, or start in regulated engagement, unless the person is issued a positive notice or positive exemption notice.

(3) If the chief executive gives the person a notice under subsection (2), the person must not, unless the person is issued a positive notice or positive exemption notice—

(a) if the person is engaged at a service outlet of a service provider when given the notice under subsection (2)—work at the service outlet; or

(b) start in other regulated engagement.

Maximum penalty—500 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

(4) Subsection (5) applies if—
[s 17E]

(a) the chief executive gives the person a notice under subsection (2); and

(b) the person is engaged by a funded non-government service provider or an NDIS non-government service provider.

(5) The chief executive must give the service provider a written notice that states—

(a) the person is not allowed to work at a service outlet of a service provider before the person’s application is decided; and

(b) it is an offence for a service provider to allow the person to work at a service outlet of the service provider unless the person is issued a positive notice or positive exemption notice; and

(c) the service provider must not terminate the person’s engagement or continued engagement solely or mainly because the service provider is given the notice.

(6) A service provider may not terminate the person’s engagement or continued engagement solely or mainly because the service provider is given a notice under subsection (5).

17E Amendment of s 70 (Prohibited engagement)

(1) Section 70(2)(b), before subparagraph (i)—

insert—

(ia) a notice under section 69A(5) that the engaged person is not allowed to work at a service outlet of a service provider before the person’s application is decided; or

(2) Section 70(2)(b)(i), after ‘section 132(5)’—

insert—
Disability Services and Other Legislation (NDIS) Amendment Bill 2019

omit, insert—
19 Replacement of s 140 (Service providers to which pt 6 applies)

Section 140—

omit, insert—

140 Application of part

(1) This part applies in relation to the following service providers that provide disability services to an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability—

(a) an NDIS provider;
(b) a registered NDIS provider;
(c) the department;
(d) a service provider that receives funds from the department to provide disability services, other than a service provider that is another department;
(e) another service provider prescribed by regulation.

(2) However, this part does not apply in relation to a service provider—

(a) prescribed by regulation; or
(b) to the extent the service provider is providing disability services prescribed by regulation.

(3) A service provider is a relevant service provider to the extent this part applies in relation to the provider under subsections (1) and (2).

(4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this part applies in relation to a relevant service provider in relation to the provision of disability services to all adults with an intellectual or cognitive disability receiving disability services from the provider even if particular disability services are not provided with funding received from the Commonwealth or the State.

Note—
For when this part applies to a forensic disability client, see also the Forensic Disability Act 2011, section 47.

20 Amendment of s 143 (Explanation of operation of pt 6)
(1) Section 143—
   insert—
   (1AA) This part states the circumstances in which a relevant service provider is authorised under this part to use a restrictive practice in relation to an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability.

(2) Section 143(1), ‘The purpose of this section is to’—
   omit, insert—
   Subsections (3) and (4)

(3) Section 143(1AA) to (4)— renumber as section 143(1) to (5).

21 Insertion of new s 150A
Before section 151—
   insert—

150A Authorisation of containment or seclusion
A relevant service provider is authorised under this part to contain or seclude an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability if—

(a) for an adult who must be assessed under section 148—the assessment has been carried out; and
(b) the relevant service provider may contain or seclude the adult under sections 151 to 154; and

(c) for an adult who is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval—any change to the adult’s positive behaviour support plan has been made by the chief executive under subdivision 3.

22 Insertion of new s 165A

Before section 166—

insert—

165A Authorisation of chemical, mechanical or physical restraint or restricting access

A relevant service provider is authorised under this part to use chemical, mechanical or physical restraint on, or restrict access of, an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability if—

(a) for an adult who must be assessed under section 148—the assessment has been carried out under that section; and

(b) the relevant service provider may use the restrictive practice under sections 166 to 171; and

(c) for an adult in relation to whom subdivision 2 applies—any change to the adult’s positive behaviour support plan is made by the relevant service provider under section 174.

Division 12 Transitional provisions for Disability Services and Other Legislation (NDIS) Amendment Act 2019

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

345 Definitions for division

In this division—

amended Act means this Act as amended by the amending Act.

former, in relation to a provision, means as in force immediately before the provision was amended or repealed under the amending Act.

new disqualified person means a person who is a disqualified person only because the person has been convicted or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence.

new disqualifying offence means an offence that is a disqualifying offence under the amended Act but was not a disqualifying offence under this Act immediately before the commencement.

new relevant disqualified person means a person who is a relevant disqualified person only because the person has been or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence for which an imprisonment order was or is imposed.
new serious offence means an offence that is a serious offence under the amended Act but was not a serious offence under this Act immediately before the commencement.

Subdivision 2 Screening

345A Effect of pre-commencement charge for serious offence

(1) This section applies if a person is the subject of a charge for a serious offence that has not been dealt with on the commencement.

(2) For applying the amended Act in relation to the person, the person is taken to have been charged with the offence on the commencement.

345B Effect of conviction or charge for new serious offence

(1) For applying the amended Act in relation to a person convicted of a new serious offence, it is immaterial—

(a) when the offence was committed; or

(b) when the person was convicted of the offence.

(2) The amended Act applies in relation to a person who is charged with a new serious offence, even if—

(a) the person was charged before the commencement; or

(b) the acts or omissions constituting the offence happened before the commencement.
346 Effect of conviction or charge for new disqualifying offence

(1) For applying section 97(1)(a) and schedule 8, definition relevant disqualified person, paragraph (a) in relation to a person who has been or is convicted of a new disqualifying offence, it is immaterial when the offence was committed or the person was convicted.

(2) Without limiting this division, in applying the amended Act from the commencement, it is immaterial—

(a) when a new disqualifying offence was committed; or

(b) when a person was convicted of a new disqualifying offence; or

(c) when a charge for a new disqualifying offence, or the acts or omissions constituting the alleged offence, happened.

Example—
An offence may have been committed, and the person convicted of the offence, before the commencement.

(3) For applying the amended Act to a current positive notice held by a person immediately before the commencement, a person the subject of a charge for a new disqualifying offence that has not been dealt with on the commencement is taken to have been charged with the offence on the commencement.

346A Effect of conviction for new disqualifying offence on existing positive notice or positive exemption notice

(1) This section applies if—
(a) a person held a current positive notice or positive exemption notice immediately before the commencement; and

(b) the person was convicted of a new disqualifying offence before the commencement.

(2) For applying the amended Act to the person’s positive notice or positive exemption notice, the offence is taken to be, or to continue to be, a serious offence despite the enactment of the amending Act.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), if the person applies for another positive exemption notice after the commencement, or section 347, 348 or 349 applies in relation to the person—

(a) the person’s conviction for the offence is taken to be, or to continue to be, a conviction for a serious offence; and

(b) the person is taken not to be a disqualified person or relevant disqualified person in relation to the person’s conviction for the offence.

347 Particular existing prescribed notice applications and exemption notice applications

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, a prescribed notice application or exemption notice application had been made about a person; and

(b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided or withdrawn; and

(c) on the commencement—
(i) the person is a new disqualified person; or
(ii) the person is the subject of a charge for a new disqualifying offence that has not been dealt with.

(2) The prescribed notice application or exemption notice application is taken to be withdrawn.

(3) The chief executive must give notice of the withdrawal to—

(a) the person; and

(b) the funded non-government service provider, or NDIS non-government service provider, that made the application.

348 Existing positive notice held by person convicted of new serious offence or new disqualifying offence

(1) This section applies if—

(a) immediately before the commencement, a person held a current positive notice; and

(b) before the commencement, the person was convicted of—

(i) a new serious offence; or

(ii) a new disqualifying offence that is taken to be a serious offence under section 346A(2).

(1A) Section 74 does not apply to the person in relation to the person’s conviction for the offence.

(1B) The chief executive must—

(a) consider whether it is appropriate to cancel the person’s positive notice under this section because of the person’s conviction for the offence; and
(b) give the person a notice stating that, because of the enactment of the amending Act, the chief executive is considering under this section whether the person should continue to hold the person’s positive notice.

(1C) If the person is engaged by a funded non-government service provider or an NDIS non-government service provider and is not a sole trader, the chief executive must give the service provider a notice mentioned in subsection (1B)(b).

(2) The chief executive may cancel the positive notice and substitute a negative notice if satisfied that, if the chief executive were to decide a prescribed notice application about the person under the amended Act, the chief executive would issue a negative notice to the person.

Note—See also section 85 for when the chief executive must cancel a positive notice held by a person who becomes a relevant disqualified person.

(3) Section 83(2), (3), (5) and (6) apply to the decision under subsection (2) as if a reference in section 83 to making a decision, or proposing to substitute a negative notice, were a reference to making a decision, or proposing to substitute a negative notice, under subsection (2).

(4) If the chief executive decides not to cancel the person’s positive notice under this section, the chief executive must give the persons mentioned in subsection (5) a notice stating that the chief executive is satisfied, having considered the enactment of the amending Act, the person should continue to hold the person’s positive notice.

(5) For subsection (4), the persons to whom the notice must be given are—

(a) the person; and
(b) each service provider given a notice under subsection (1B).

349 Existing positive exemption notice held by person convicted of new serious offence or new disqualifying offence

(1) This section applies if—

(a) immediately before the commencement, a person held a current positive exemption notice; and

(b) before the commencement, the person was convicted of—

(i) a new serious offence; or

(ii) a new disqualifying offence that is taken to be a serious offence under section 346A(2).

(1A) Section 74 does not apply to the person in relation to the person’s conviction for the offence.

(1B) The chief executive must—

(a) consider whether it is appropriate to cancel the person’s positive exemption notice under this section because of the person’s conviction for the offence; and

(b) give the person a notice stating that, because of the enactment of the amending Act, the chief executive is considering under this section whether the person should continue to hold the person’s positive exemption notice.

(1C) If the person is engaged by a funded non-government service provider or an NDIS non-government service provider and is not a sole trader, the chief executive must give the service provider a notice mentioned in subsection (1B)(b).
(2) The chief executive may cancel the positive exemption notice and substitute a negative exemption notice if satisfied that, if the chief executive were to decide an exemption notice application about the person under the amended Act, the chief executive would issue a negative exemption notice to the person.

Note—
See also section 64(2) for the currency of a positive exemption notice.

(3) Section 84(2), (3), (5) and (6) apply to the decision under subsection (2) as if a reference in section 84 to making a decision, or proposing to substitute a negative exemption notice, were a reference to making a decision, or proposing to substitute a negative exemption notice, under subsection (2).

(4) If the chief executive decides not to cancel the person’s positive exemption notice under this section, the chief executive must give the persons mentioned in subsection (5) a notice stating that the chief executive is satisfied, having considered the enactment of the amending Act, the person should continue to hold the person’s positive exemption notice.

(5) For subsection (4), the persons to whom the notice must be given are—
(a) the person; and
(b) each service provider given a notice under subsection (1B).

350 Existing applications to cancel negative notices or negative exemption notices

(1) This section applies if—
(a) before the commencement, a person had applied to the chief executive under section 82 to cancel the person’s negative notice or negative exemption notice; and
(b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided.

(2) If, on the commencement, the person is a new relevant disqualified person—
(a) the application is taken to be withdrawn; and
(b) the chief executive must give the person notice of the withdrawal.

(3) If, on the commencement, the person is not a new relevant disqualified person, the chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.

351 Particular existing applications to end suspension of positive notices

(1) This section applies if—
(a) before the commencement, a person had applied to the chief executive under section 87 to cancel the person’s suspended positive notice; and
(b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided; and
(c) on the commencement, the person is not a new relevant disqualified person.

(2) The chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.

Note—
See also section 85 for when the chief executive must cancel a positive notice held by a person who becomes a relevant disqualified person.
352 Particular existing applications to end suspension of positive exemption notices

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, a person had applied to the chief executive under section 89 to cancel the person’s suspended positive exemption notice; and

(b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided; and

(c) on the commencement, the person is not a new relevant disqualified person.

(2) The chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.

Note—
See also section 64(2) for the currency of a positive exemption notice.

353 Existing eligibility applications

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, a person had made an eligibility application; and

(b) immediately before the commencement, the eligibility application had not been decided or withdrawn.

(2) The chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.

354 Particular existing eligibility declarations

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, the chief executive issued, or was taken to have issued, an eligibility declaration to a person; and
(b) immediately before the commencement, the eligibility declaration had not expired; and

(c) on the commencement, the person—
   (i) is a new relevant disqualified person; or
   (ii) is charged with a new disqualifying offence.

(2) The eligibility declaration is taken to have expired.

355 Existing application for reversal of decision refusing an eligibility declaration

(1) This section applies if—
   (a) before the commencement, a person had made an application under section 107(2) to the chief executive; and
   (b) immediately before the commencement, the application had not been decided or withdrawn.

(2) The chief executive must decide the application under the amended Act.

356 Undecided reviews and appeals by new disqualified persons

(1) This section applies if—
   (a) before the commencement, a person—
      (i) applied, under section 109, for a review of a part 5 reviewable decision; or
      (ii) appealed, under the QCAT Act, against a decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 reviewable decision; and
   (b) immediately before the commencement, the application or appeal had not been decided or withdrawn; and
(c) on the commencement, the person is a new disqualified person.

(2) The application or appeal, and any proceeding in relation to the application or appeal, must be dismissed—

(a) if a proceeding in relation to the application or appeal is before a court—by the court; or

(b) otherwise—by the tribunal, even if the dismissal would be contrary to a direction of the Court of Appeal.

357 Review of part 5 reviewable decision about new disqualified person

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement—

(i) the chief executive made a part 5 reviewable decision about a person; and

(ii) the person had not applied for a review of the decision under section 109; and

(b) on the commencement, the person is a new disqualified person.

(2) The amended Act applies in relation to the part 5 reviewable decision.

358 Appeal by new disqualified person against decision of tribunal on review of part 5 reviewable decision

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, a person may have appealed under the QCAT Act against a decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 reviewable decision; and
(b) on the commencement—

   (i) the time within which the person may appeal under the QCAT Act has not passed; and

   (ii) the person is a new disqualified person.

(2) Any appeal started by the person against the decision must be dismissed—

(a) if a proceeding in relation to the appeal is before a court—by the court; or

(b) otherwise—by the tribunal, even if the dismissal would be contrary to a direction of the Court of Appeal.

359 Existing appeal by chief executive against decision of tribunal on review of part 5 reviewable decision

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, the chief executive appealed, under the QCAT Act, against a decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 reviewable decision about a person; and

(b) immediately before the commencement, the appeal had not been decided or withdrawn; and

(c) on the commencement, the person is a new disqualified person.

(2) The entity hearing the appeal must apply the amended Act in relation to the matter the subject of the appeal.
360 Appeal by chief executive against decision of tribunal on review of part 5 reviewable decision

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, the chief executive may have appealed under the QCAT Act against a decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 reviewable decision about a person; and

(b) on the commencement—

(i) the time within which the chief executive may appeal under the QCAT Act (the appeal period) has not passed; and

(ii) the person is a new disqualified person.

(2) The chief executive may appeal against the decision within the appeal period and the entity hearing the appeal must apply the amended Act in relation to the matter the subject of the appeal.

361 Disqualification orders for new disqualifying offences committed before commencement

A court may make a disqualification order under section 137 in relation to a person convicted after the commencement of a new disqualifying offence committed before the commencement.

Subdivision 3 Immunity from liability

362 Definition for subdivision

In this subdivision—relevant service provider has the meaning given by former section 140(1).

363 Immunity from liability—use of restrictive practices before commencement

Former part 6, division 7, subdivision 1 continues to apply in relation to the use of a restrictive practice by a relevant service provider, or an individual acting for a relevant service provider, before the commencement.

364 Immunity from liability—locking gates, doors and windows before commencement

Former sections 218 and 219 continue to apply in relation to the locking of gates, doors or windows by a relevant service provider, or an individual acting for a relevant service provider, before the commencement.

(a) the request was made under former section 43(1)(b) to a staff member at the former visitable site; and

(b) immediately before the commencement—

(i) the staff member had not told the public guardian about the request; and

(ii) the period that is 3 business days after the request is made had not ended.

(3) The staff member must, within 3 business days after the request is made, tell the public guardian about the request.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(4) If, immediately before the commencement, a community visitor (adult) for the former visitable site had not visited the site in accordance with the request—

(a) a community visitor (adult) for the site must visit the site as soon as practicable after being informed of the request; and

(b) chapter 3, part 6, division 4 applies to the performance of the function under paragraph (a) as if—

(i) the function were being performed under section 43; and

(ii) the former visitable site were a visitable site under chapter 3, part 6.

194 Existing authorisations to enter former visitable sites outside normal hours

(1) An existing authorisation in relation to an existing complaint continues to have effect according to its terms and conditions.

(2) In this section—

existing authorisation means an authorisation given under former section 45 that was in effect immediately before the commencement.

existing complaint means a complaint in relation to which section 192 applies.

195 Reports about visits to former visitable sites before commencement

(1) This section applies if, before the commencement, a community visitor (adult) visited a former visitable site.

(2) If, immediately before the commencement, the community visitor (adult) had not complied with former section 47(1) in relation to the visit—

(a) the community visitor (adult) must prepare a report on the visit under section 47 and give a copy of the report to the public guardian; and

(b) the public guardian must, as soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the report, give a copy of the report to a person in charge of the site.

(3) If, immediately before the commencement, the public guardian had not complied with former section 47(3) in relation to a report on the visit, the public guardian must give a copy of the report to a person in charge of the site.

(4) Section 47(4) applies in relation to a copy of a report on the visit received by the public guardian before or after the commencement.
196 Proceedings for particular offences

(1) This section applies in relation to an offence committed against any of the following provisions, in relation to a former visitable site, before the commencement—

(a) former section 43(2);
(b) former section 44(3);
(c) former section 49.

(2) Without limiting the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 20, a proceeding for the offence may be started or continued, and a person may be convicted of and punished for the offence, as if the amending Act, section 62 had not commenced.

(3) Subsection (2) applies despite the Criminal Code, section 11.
