214B Confidentiality of information 6

(1) This section applies to a person who— 7

(a) is, or has been, any of the following— 8

(i) the chief executive; 9

(ii) an inspector; 10

(iii) another person involved in 11 administering this Act, including, for 12 example, a public service employee; 13 and 14

(b) obtains confidential information about 15
another person in administering, or 16 performing functions or exercising powers 17
under, this Act. 18

(2) The person must not use or disclose the 19
confidential information unless the use or 20 disclosure is— 21

(a) in the performance of a function or exercise 22
of a power under this Act; or 23

(b) with the consent of the person to whom the 24
information relates; or 25

(c) otherwise required or permitted by law. 26

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 27

(3) In this section— 28

confidential information— 29

(a) means any information that— 30

	(i) could identify an individual; or	1
	(ii) is about a person's current financial position or financial background; or	2 3
	(iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but	4 5 6
	(b) does not include—	7
	(i) information that is publicly available; or	8 9

	Part 3A	Biosecurity zone maps	21
	130A Meaning of biosecurity zone map	22
	(1) A biosecurity zone map is a map, identifying a biosecurity zone, held by the department and published on its website.	23 24 25

Editor's note—	1
A biosecurity zone map can generally be reduced or enlarged to show the exact location of the boundaries of a biosecurity zone identified on the map.	2 3 4
(2) A reference to a particular biosecurity zone map by name is a reference to the biosecurity zone map of that name.	5 6 7
130B Amendment of particular biosecurity zone maps	8 9
(1) This section applies if a biosecurity zone is identified, under biosecurity zone regulatory provisions (the relevant provisions), by reference to a biosecurity zone map as in force from time to time.	10 11 12 13 14
(2) The chief executive may amend the biosecurity zone map if the chief executive—	15 16
(a) becomes aware that the regulated biosecurity matter to which the relevant provisions relate is present or absent in a particular area; or	17 18 19 20
(b) is otherwise satisfied there has been a change in the distribution of the regulated biosecurity matter to which the relevant provisions relate.	21 22 23 24
(3) The chief executive may amend the biosecurity zone map as often as the chief executive considers necessary to more accurately show the distribution of the regulated biosecurity matter.	25 26 27 28
130C Requirements in relation to identification of particular biosecurity zones	29 30
(1) This section applies if—	31
(a) a biosecurity zone is identified, under biosecurity zone regulatory provisions, by	32 33

[s 32]

	reference to a biosecurity zone map as in force from time to time; and	1 2
	(b) a new biosecurity zone map changing the area for the biosecurity zone is published on the department's website.	3 4 5
(2)	The chief executive must ensure the new biosecurity zone map—	6 7
	(a) states the biosecurity zone to which the map relates; and	8 9
	(b) states the date and time the map was published on the department's website.	10 11
(3)	As soon as practicable after the new biosecurity zone map is published on the department's website, the chief executive must take all reasonable steps to ensure that persons likely to be directly affected by the change of the area for the biosecurity zone are made aware of the making of the map, including, for example, by some or all of the following—	12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19
	(a) advertising in newspapers, on radio or on television;	20 21
	(b) electronically using emails, text messages or social media.	22 23

13F Definition for division

21

In this division—

22

relevant thing means any of the following—

23

(a) agricultural produce;

24

(b) manufactured stock food;

25

[s 69]

	(c) the tissue of a trade species animal;	1
	(d) a product derived from a trade species animal.	2 3
Clause 69	Replacement of ss 15 and 15A	4
	Sections 15 and 15A—	5
	omit, insert—	6
	15 Duty to report chemical residues in or on relevant thing	7 8
	(1) This section applies to a person if the person becomes aware that the residue of a chemical in or on a relevant thing is more than the maximum residue limit prescribed for the thing.	9 10 11 12
	Examples of persons to whom this section may apply—	13
	• a person conducting an analysis of a relevant thing	14
	• a veterinary surgeon who treats a trade species animal	15 16
	• a person who monitors the residue of chemicals on agricultural produce for a supermarket or grocery store	17 18 19
	• a farmer who receives a report of an analysis of agricultural produce from a laboratory based outside Queensland	20 21 22
	(2) As soon as practicable but within 24 hours after becoming aware, the person must—	23 24
	(a) advise the standards officer that the residue of a chemical in or on the relevant thing exceeds the maximum residue limit prescribed for the thing; and	25 26 27 28
	(b) give the standards officer the required information for the relevant thing.	29 30
	Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	31
	(3) However, the person is not required to comply with subsection (2) if the person becomes aware,	32 33

before the person would otherwise be required to 1 advise the standards officer under the subsection, 2 that another person has advised the standards 3 officer as required under subsection (2). 4

Example— 5

A person would not be required to advise the standards 6 officer that the residue of a chemical in or on a relevant 7 thing exceeds the maximum residue limit prescribed for 8 the thing if a person who conducted an analysis of the 9 thing had already advised the standards officer about it 10 as soon as the results of the analysis were known. 11

(4) A person complies with subsection (2)(b) if the 12 person gives the standards officer a laboratory 13 report about the residue of a chemical in or on a 14 sample of the relevant thing that contains all of the 15 required information for the relevant thing. 16

(5) However, if the laboratory report does not contain 17
all of the required information for the relevant 18 thing, the person only complies with subsection 19 (2)(b) if the person also gives the standards 20 officer— 21

(a) the required information that is not 22 contained in the laboratory report for the 23 relevant thing; and 24

(b) sufficient information for the standards 25 officer to identify the laboratory report to 26 which the required information mentioned 27
in paragraph (a) relates. 28

Example— 29

the sample number for the relevant thing the 30 subject of the laboratory report 31

(6) In this section— 32

distinguishing number, for a relevant thing, 33 includes a number with 1 or more letters or 34 symbols. 35

laboratory number, for a relevant thing, means 36

[s 70]

the distinguishing number given to a sample of the thing by a laboratory that analysed the thing.	1 2
required information , for a relevant thing, means the following information about the thing—	3 4
(a) a description of the relevant thing;	5
(b) if the relevant thing has a sample number—the sample number;	6 7
(c) if the relevant thing has a laboratory number—the laboratory number;	8 9
(d) the name of the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;	10 11
(e) the concentration of the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;	12 13
(f) the maximum residue limit prescribed for the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;	14 15 16
(g) the name and address of the person who manufactured or produced the relevant thing;	17 18 19
(h) if the information mentioned in paragraph (g) is not reasonably available—the name and address of the person from whom the relevant thing was obtained.	20 21 22 23
sample number , for a relevant thing, means a distinguishing number given to the sample of the thing by a person who made the sample of the thing.	24 25 26 27

(i) the chief executive;	4
(ii) an inspector;	5
(iii) an analyst;	6
(iv) a standards officer;	7
(v) a deputy standards officer;	8
(vi) another person involved in administering this Act, including, for example, a public service employee; and	9 10 11 12
(b) obtains confidential information about another person in administering, or performing functions or exercising powers under, this Act.	13 14 15 16
(2) The person must not use or disclose the confidential information unless the use or disclosure is—	17 18 19
(a) in the performance of a function or exercise of a power under this Act; or	20 21
(b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or	22 23
(c) otherwise required or permitted by law.	24
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	25
(3) In this section—	26
confidential information —	27
(a) means any information that—	28
(i) could identify an individual; or	29
(ii) is about a person’s current financial position or financial background; or	30 31

- (iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but
- (b) does not include—
- (i) information that is publicly available; or
- (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.
- 36 Exchange of information with prescribed government entity
- (1) The chief executive may enter into an arrangement (an information-sharing arrangement) with a prescribed government entity for the purpose of sharing or exchanging information—
- (a) held by the chief executive or the prescribed government entity; or
- (b) to which the chief executive or the prescribed government entity has access.
- (2) An information-sharing arrangement may relate only to information that helps—
- (a) the chief executive or an inspector perform functions under this Act; or
- (b) the prescribed government entity, or a person employed or engaged by the entity, perform functions under a law of the State, another State or the Commonwealth.
- (3) Under an information-sharing arrangement, the chief executive and the prescribed government entity are, despite another Act or law, authorised to—

[s 73]

	(a) ask for and receive information held by the other party to the arrangement or to which the other party has access; and	1 2 3
	(b) disclose information to the other party.	4
	(4) However, the information may be used by the chief executive or the prescribed government entity only for the purpose for which it was given under the arrangement.	5 6 7 8
	(5) In this section—	9
	prescribed government entity means—	10
	(a) the chief executive of a department; or	11
	(b) an entity of, or representing, the Commonwealth or another State.	12 13
