9 MOTION WITHOUT NOTICE – RESEARCH INVOLVING HUMAN EMBRYOS AND PROHIBITION OF HUMAN CLONING BILL

Leader of the House (Ms Bligh), by leave, moved – That the motion circulated in my name for the division and reconsolidation of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003, viz—

'THE DIVISION AND RECONSOLIDATION OF THE Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill

That so much of Standing and Sessional Orders be suspended as would permit—

- (1) The Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 being divided into two Bills –
- (a) A Bill for an Act to prohibit human cloning and other unacceptable practices associated with reproduction technology, and for related purposes to be known as the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003.
 - (b) A Bill for an Act to regulate certain activities involving the use of human embryos, and for related purposes to be known as the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003.
- (2) The Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 will incorporate:
- the title (An Act to prohibit human cloning and other unacceptable practices associated with reproductive technology, and for related purposes);
 - enacting words;
 - a clause incorporating the short title (the Act to be cited as the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003);
 - a clause providing the objects of the bill;
 - a clause providing that the commencement is to be a day fixed by proclamation;
 - a clause providing for the definitions in the Bill and those parts of the schedule of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 containing definitions relevant to the construction of the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003
 - clauses 1 – 6 (amended to reflect the new Bill), 7-20, 41-51, 53, 56-59 of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003;
 - any consequential and necessary amendments to reflect this order, including renumbering.
- (3) The Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 will incorporate:
- the title (An Act to regulate certain activities involving the use of human embryos, and for related purposes);
 - enacting words;
 - a clause incorporating the short title (the Act to be cited as the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Act 2003);
 - a clause providing the objects of the bill;
 - a clause providing for the commencement that is to mirror Clause 2 of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003;
 - a clause providing for the definitions in the Bill and those parts of the schedule of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 containing definitions relevant to the construction of the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003
 - clauses 1 – 6 (amended to reflect the new Bill) and 21- 55 of the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003;
 - any consequential and necessary amendments to reflect this order, including renumbering.
- (4) If the question that the Bill be divided as proposed in paragraphs (1)-(3) is agreed to, then further consideration of the debate stands adjourned as an Order of the Day until copies of the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 in accordance with paragraphs (1)-(3) are presented and copies supplied to members.
- (5) Once presented and copies of the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 have been supplied to members and the Order of the Day for resumption of debate is called on, the question before the Chair on the resumed order will be:
- “That the House accepts the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 presented and circulated to members as complying with the order of the House to divide the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and orders the bills to be printed and resumption of debate of the Bills now stands as an Order of the Day”.
- (6) If the question that the Bill be divided as proposed in paragraphs (1)-(3) is agreed to and the question in (5) is also agreed to, the Bills will be dealt by way of a cognate debate, with the Bills being debated together at the second and third reading stage and Committee of the Whole House, but there will be a separate question for each Bill at the second and third reading and each Bill will be considered in detail in the Committee of the Whole House.
- (7) Should both Bills pass the second and third reading stage without amendment, then after the third reading, but before the titles are agreed to, the two Bills will be reconsolidated into the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 as it stood prior to being divided. The questions will then stand:
- (a) “That the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 be reconsolidated into the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 as it stood prior to being divided and is deemed to have passed all stages.”
 - (b) “That the title of the reconsolidated Bill, the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003, be agreed to”
- (8) Should either Bill be amended, then after the third readings, but before the titles are agreed to, the two Bills will be reconsolidated back into the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 as it stood prior to being divided, with any amendments being transposed into the reconsolidated Bill. Debate will stand adjourned until the reconsolidated Bill is presented and copies of the amended, reconsolidated Bill are supplied to members.
- The following questions will then stand:

- (a) "That the Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003 and the Regulation of Research Involving Human Embryos and Assisted Reproductive Technology Bill 2003 with amendments be consolidated as the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill 2003."
- (b) "That the House accepts the Research Involving Human Embryos and Prohibition of Human Cloning Bill presented and circulated to members as being the consolidated Bill with all necessary amendments, orders the Bill to be printed and deems the Bill to have now passed all stages".

22 STATEMENT BY SPEAKER – UNPARLIAMENTARY LANGUAGE

Mr Speaker made the following statement—

'Honourable Members—

It has come to my attention that a member, during an interjection in question time today, used unparliamentary language.

I did not hear the offending remarks at the time due to an unacceptable level of noise from members in the chamber.

I advise the House that I have ordered that the offending unparliamentary language be expunged from the Hansard record.

I take this opportunity again to remind members about behaviour in the chamber. The use of unparliamentary language risks bringing this House into disrepute and I will not tolerate, and I have also instructed the temporary speakers to not tolerate, unparliamentary language.

It is incumbent on each member to ensure that they behave as the dignity of this House demands and not to use language that would be found unbecoming in society.

I stress that within a number of weeks these parliamentary proceedings will be broadcast live and unedited over the Internet. This makes it even more imperative that members behave properly.

More generally, I note that I did not hear the offending remarks this morning because of the general level of noise in the chamber through members inappropriately interjecting and having audible conversations. I again remind members about unnecessary interjections and general conversations across the chamber, particularly in the morning period until after question time.'
