Recognises the exceptional contribution and achievements of women in public life since Queensland women were afforded the right to vote in State elections in 1905;

Notes the Government's intention to celebrate the centenary of this milestone in 2005 with a range of activities throughout Queensland under the theme Celebrate the Past – Claim the Future: 100 years of the vote for Queensland women.

Further, that in celebrating the centenary, the House acknowledges that the right to vote was not afforded to all women, with indigenous women in Queensland only gaining the right to vote in State elections in 1965.

(24 February 2005, Mr Rickuss)

The absurdity of this situation has been highlighted by the fact that at the same time QR was sifting through redundancies it was advertising for drivers and extolling the virtues of working in regional Queensland—
