NOTICES OF MOTION

1. That this House:
- (1) notes:
- a) that under the supervision of the Member for Everton, the Liberal National Party removed mandatory financial reporting for licensees in the building and construction industry;
 - b) the extensive consultation conducted by the Palaszczuk Government leading to the development of the Queensland Building Plan which includes a suite of reforms to address security of payment;
 - c) that the independent Building Industry Fairness Implementation and Evaluation Panel was established to assess the implementation of the Palaszczuk Government's Building Industry Fairness Reforms and that it will report to government in March 2019;
 - d) the Commonwealth Government commissioned Murray Report identifies the Queensland model of project bank accounts as best-practice;
 - e) the failings of Australian Securities and Investments Commission to fully enforce Australian corporate law as it relates to the building and construction industry;
 - f) that while the LNP Federal Government has failed to support subcontractors, this House welcomes Federal Labor leader Bill Shorten's commitment to introduce project bank accounts, target phoenix activity and establish a litigation fund for subcontractors to access justice; and
- (2) calls on the Prime Minister to include national action on security of payment, phoenixing and industry law enforcement at the next COAG meeting.
