GENERAL NOTICES OF MOTION

1. This House notes and condemns the Palaszczuk Labor Government's legacy of five years of economic failures, while being distracted by ongoing integrity issues, including:
  - a) Having the worst unemployment rate in the nation before COVID-19, in every year since the state election and in the latest ABS labour force data released in July this year;
  - b) Smashing the Queensland economy with nine new or increased job-destroying taxes, ripping almost $4 billion out of the state economy and refusing to match the LNP's no-new taxes guarantee over the next term;
  - c) Currently having a record 234,000 Queenslanders out of work and on the jobless queue;
  - d) An infrastructure underspend of $1.3 billion in the last financial year at a time when infrastructure spending should have been fast-tracked to stimulate the economy;
  - e) Failing to provide economic leadership with three Treasurers and three Under Treasurers in the last three years;
  - f) Moving the budget to April this year to provide businesses and industry with certainty, but then refusing to release a full state budget to avoid scrutiny before this year's state election;
  - g) Committing up to $200 million of taxpayer funded support to bail-out Virgin Airlines, while refusing to guarantee no Queensland job losses;
  - h) Failing to rule out the Member for South Brisbane returning to Cabinet;
  - i) Failure to build dams and ripping down Paradise Dam in the middle of a drought; and
  - j) Multiple failures in the delivery of services that Queenslanders rely on.

Notice given: Member for Nanango (Mrs D Frecklington)
 Date: 9 September 2020
