Health, Environment and Innovation Committee

Erratum to Report No. 17, 58th Parliament - Subordinate legislation tabled between 26 August 2025 and 16 September 2025

The Health, Environment and Innovation Committee seeks to amend the following errors in the committee's Report No. 17, 58th Parliament – Subordinate legislation tabled between 26 August 2025 and 16 September 2025 (Report No. 17), tabled on 14 November 2025.

On page 4 of Report No. 17, in section 1.2.2, the final paragraph incorrectly states that the Parliament was denied the ability to scrutinise SL No. 60, or move disallowance motions prior to its commencement. On page 5 of Report No. 17, the first committee comment incorrectly states that tabling of subordinate legislation should permit consideration by Parliament prior to commencement and effect.

Section 1.2.2, including the committee comment on page 5, is omitted.

On page 11 of Report No. 17, the paragraph in section 4.1.2 incorrectly states that the Parliament was denied the ability to scrutinise SL No. 91, or move disallowance motions prior to its commencement. On page 11 of the Report, the second committee comment incorrectly states that tabling of subordinate legislation should permit consideration by Parliament prior to commencement and effect.

Section 4.1.2, including the associated committee comment, is omitted.
